NOTE: Based on TBR Common Calendar dates, grades cannot be due until May 11 which is the first day that 3 different summer parts of term begin. Some students may not be able to confirm registration based on anticipated financial aid for the Summer 2015 term until after grade processing has completed, which means some students will have to make alternative plans related to the first summer payment/confirmation deadline. Any students placed on suspension will be notified on the night of May 11 and their summer courses will be dropped with a 100 percent refund. It is very important that faculty submit grades on time so that students' eligibility can be determined.
