The College of Liberal Arts, through its nine academic departments and one school, educates and serves all MTSU students in the University's General Education Program; offers graduate and undergraduate majors, concentrations, minors, interdisciplinary programs, and teacher preparation programs; and provides a wide variety of cocurricular activities including lecture series, concerts, performances, and exhibitions. With diverse programs in the humanities; social sciences; and visual, performing, and communication arts, the college brings together an outstanding faculty and students to form a community devoted to lifelong learning, scholarship, research and discovery, and public service.

Through both curricular and cocurricular offerings, the college also seeks to enrich the University and regional community with scholarly and cultural activities designed to promote among all University citizens and patrons a broad knowledge of liberal arts disciplines; a commitment to continual intellectual growth; the ongoing improvement of skills that enhance communication, problem-solving, and creative and critical thinking; and a global perspective that supports an appreciation of the cultural diversity within our region and beyond.

Following are the college departments/schools with a listing of programs offered.

Programs in the Department of Art lead to the Bachelor of Science, the Bachelor of Fine Arts, or the Bachelor of Arts degree. Persons pursuing the B.S. degree will major in Art Education; this program offers preparation for school teaching at all grade levels and for graduate-level study in the field of art education. In order to earn the B.F.A. degree, students major in Art and select one of two concentrations-Graphic Design or Studio. These programs offer preparation for work as a commercial artist/designer and/or for advanced study in a studio area of interest. The B.A. degree in Art History offers preparation for those who wish to pursue careers in museums, galleries, or arts organizations and/or further study at the graduate level.

Minors in Art and Art History also are available.

Students transferring into department programs may be required to submit a portfolio of artwork for review before transfer credits are approved.

Transfer and MTSU students in any Art major (except Graphic Design concentration students) must have completed each foundation course-ART 1610, ART 1620, ART 1630, ART 1640, ART 1910, ART 1920, and ART 1930-with a grade of C (2.00) or better before progressing to their major courses. The Graphic Design concentration requires a grade of C in ART 1610, ART 1620, ART 1630, ART 1640, ART 2310, ART 2325, and ART 3325.

Transfer and MTSU students in the Graphic Design concentration will continue to use candidacy program requirements listed.

Career Opportunities in Art

Students interested in career opportunities in art should consult their advisors for information regarding preparatory MTSU courses, graduate programs, certification, etc., for careers in arts administration and art therapy.

General Departmental Information

1. Students majoring in the department, or who are taking one or more art courses, may be required to attend various extracurricular activities including, but not limited to, exhibitions, films, and lectures during the semester.
2. The Department of Art reserves the right to retain certain selected examples of student work for teaching purposes and as a part of its permanent collection.
3. Students will be responsible for the purchase of certain materials in many courses as required by the instructor.
4. Various courses offered within the department may require of all students enrolled the effective use of communication skills, both written and verbal, which reflect university-level abilities.
5. Students majoring in Art with a Studio concentration are required to participate in a Studio Portfolio Review.
6. ART 4000 (Workshop) and ART 4640 (Advanced Art Problems) may be taken for a maximum of 9 hours each, no more than 3 hours per semester, and still count for undergraduate credit and graduation.
7. Levels I and II courses, which include book arts and ceramics, may be taken without prerequisites by non-art majors when so designated in the class schedule.
8. All courses are offered on a laboratory basis except ART 1030, ART 1910, ART 1920, ART 1930, ART 3870-ART 3872, ART 3880, ART 3910, ART 3920, ART 3940, ART 3960, ART 3990, ART 4870, ART 4880, ART 4900, ART 4905, ART 4920, ART 4940, and ART 4960.
9. The Department of Art affirms that a theoretical and working understanding of the historical meanings and studio applications of the human image are critical in the education of visual art students. To develop such an understanding, Department of Art courses often utilize images of clothed and unclothed human figures and, in certain studio classes, live nude models.

Graduate Study

The department offers a minor at the graduate level. Requirements and a list of courses offered for graduate credit are published in the Graduate Catalog.

Nancy Kelker, program coordinator

Nancy.Kelker@mtsu.edu

The B.A. program in Art History is designed for those who wish to pursue careers in museums, galleries, or arts organizations and/or pursue further study at the graduate level. All students pursuing a major in Art History are required to complete the General Education requirements as specified by the department. Students should consult with their advisors each semester in order to plan their schedule of courses.

In addition to the art history core requirements, students majoring in art history must take 24 hours of art history upper-division courses; of these a minimum of six hours must be taken in each of the three art history discipline areas: non-western, medieval/renaissance, and modern/contemporary as listed on the art history upper-division form. Art history majors must maintain a GPA of at least 2.50 in the major and complete a senior thesis before graduation.

The major in Art History requires the completion of a minimum of 40 semester hours including

1. a major core of 13 hours: ART 1910, ART 1920, ART 1930, ART 3940, ART 3950 (1 hour).
2. 27 hours of upper-division art history. Of these a minimum of two courses (6 hours) in each of the three art history discipline areas must be taken: non-western (ART 3870, ART 3871, ART 3872, ART 3880, ART 4870, ART 4880, ART 4940, ART 4960, and ART 4970); medieval/renaissance (ART 3760, ART 3840, ART 3850, ART 3860, ART 3910, ART 3960, ART 4905, ART 4940, ART 4960, and ART 4970), and modern/contemporary (ART 3880, ART 3990, ART 4880, ART 4890, ART 4900, ART 4905, ART 4920, ART 4940, ART 4960, and ART 4970).
3. a minor of at least 15 hours taken from courses in art or another liberal arts discipline approved by the student's academic advisor.
4. foreign language courses of at least 12 hours in a single language; two courses must be at the intermediate or advanced level.
5. elective courses be taken to complete 120 hours (to be chosen in area of emphasis in consultation with advisor).

Candidacy Program

The Graphic Design concentration includes a candidacy program based on successful completion of certain required classes with specified minimum grade point expectations and performance for retention in Graphic Design. The candidacy program imposes requirements in several areas:

1. Admission to most upper-division professional courses in the Graphic Design concentration will be restricted to students admitted to candidacy.
2. All students in the Graphic Design concentration should apply for admission to candidacy at the end of the semester in which they will have completed 45 semester hours of coursework.
3. At a minimum, students in the Graphic Design concentration must have completed each of the following courses with a grade of C (2.00) or better before applying for candidacy:
 - ART 1610 - Two-Dimensional Design
 - ART 1620 - Drawing I
 - ART 1630 - Three-Dimensional Design
 - ART 1640 - Drawing II
 - ART 2310 - Graphic Design Technologies
 - ART 2325 - Typographic Design
 - ART 3325 - Word and Image
4. At a minimum, students applying for candidacy in the Graphic Design concentration must have an overall GPA of at least 2.00 on all University-level coursework.
5. Students applying for candidacy in the Graphic Design concentration must twice submit for juried review a portfolio containing work completed in the courses listed in item 3 above (specified graphic-related electives). (The majority of the work in the portfolio must be two-dimensional.) The first portfolio review will follow completion of ART 2325 and a second review will follow completion of ART 3325. If after the second portfolio review a student is not admitted to candidacy the student may, with modifications, submit the portfolio one additional time before being asked to find another major or concentration.

Academic Map

Following is a printable, suggested four-year schedule of courses:

Art, Graphic Design, B.F.A., Academic Map

Art, Studio Concentration, B.F.A.

Department of Art

615-898-2455

Michael Baggarly, program coordinator

Michael.Baggarly@mtsu.edu

The B.F.A. program is designed for those who wish to work professionally as artists in art-related fields and/or work toward a graduate degree (M.F.A.). All students pursuing a major in Art are required to complete the General Education requirements as specified by the department. Students should consult with their advisors each semester in order to plan their schedule of courses.

Students electing the Studio concentration choose a studio emphasis from ceramics, painting, printmaking, or sculpture. Students in the Studio concentration must take 3 to 6 hours in directed problems leading to a senior exhibit. This is listed in the course descriptions as Level VI in each area.

The Studio concentration requires the completion of a minimum of 82 semester hours in art-related courses including

1. 24 hours of major core courses including ART 1610, ART 1620, ART 1630, ART 1640, ART 1920, ART 1930 and two upper-division art history courses;
2. 19 hours chosen from a primary studio (18 hours from ceramics, painting, printmaking, or sculpture) plus ART 3110;
3. 27 hours of guided electives consisting of
 - a. Studio electives: 9 hours selected from entry- and upper-level courses in one or more of the following studio areas: book arts, ceramics, computer art, drawing, graphic design, interactive design, printmaking, painting, and sculpture.
 - b. Art electives: 9 hours selected from entry- and upper-level courses in one or more of the following areas: book arts, ceramics, computer art, drawing, graphic design, printmaking, painting, art history, sculpture, and multimedia. Courses should be relevant to the student's area of emphasis.
 - c. Secondary studio: 9 hours (one entry-level course from 3 of the following areas that are not represented by the Primary Studio Category: ceramics, printmaking, painting, or sculpture).
4. 12 hours Auxiliary Studio including ART 2310, ART 3000, ART 3610, PHOT 2050.

Studio Portfolio Review

Candidates for the B.F.A. degree with a Studio concentration must sign up for and submit representative samples of their coursework to a Studio Portfolio Review and appear in person to discuss their progress toward the B.F.A. This will take place at the first scheduled Studio Portfolio Review that is immediately prior to or immediately following the students' successful completion of ART 1610, ART 1620, ART 1630, ART 1640, two art history courses, and four studio courses.

Communication Studies and Organizational Communication

Sharon Smith, Interim Chair

Asbury, Gebert, Kim, Kratzer, McCormick, Seward, Shi, Richey, Smith

Courses in the Department of Communication Studies and Organizational Communication are designed to meet the General Education needs of all students; to develop a wide range of skills to promote effective communication; and to prepare students for careers in both corporate and nonprofit organizations.

The department offers a major in Organizational Communication with a concentration in Communication Studies.

Departmental programs lead to a Bachelor of Science degree.

Minors in Communication Studies and Organizational Communication are available. The department also participates in the Leadership Studies interdisciplinary minor. (See Interdisciplinary Majors and Minors for information.)

MTSU Debate Program

The Communication Studies and Organizational Communication Department supports, directs, and staffs the MTSU Debate Program. MTSU Debate program provides active intercollegiate competitive opportunities and is open to all undergraduate students in good academic standing.

Honors College

The department offers Honors classes in COMM 2200 .

Graduate Study

Courses in communication studies may be taken for graduate credit. The Graduate Catalog has details and course listings.

Communication Studies Minor

Department of Communication Studies and Organizational Communication

The minor in Communication Studies is designed to increase the ability of students to communicate effectively with people from diverse backgrounds in both the workplace and personal settings. Effective decision-making, problem solving, and leadership skills are stressed. Students should meet with a minor advisor to plan a course of study that would best fit their career goals and interests. The minor in Communication Studies requires 15 hours.

All students with a minor in Communication Studies must have a minimum of 2.00 GPA in the minor.

NOTE: Please see a Liberal Arts advisor on the first floor of Jones Hall. Go to the College of Liberal Arts advising page and click on the blue button to make an appointment.

Required Courses (6 hours)

- COMM 2300 - Interpersonal Communication 3 credit hours
- COMM 3350 - Diversity in Communication 3 credit hours OR
- COMM 3560 - Intercultural Communication 3 credit hours

Electives (9 hours)

- 9 hours from courses with a COMM prefix. COMM 2200 may not count toward Communication Studies minor requirements.

Organizational Communication Minor

Department of Communication Studies and Organizational Communication

The minor in Organizational Communication will provide a 15-credit, intensive study of organizational concepts and ideas. Since most of the courses in the minor will be part of MTSU's Experiential Learning Program, the minor is an excellent choice for students who want to graduate with the EXL designation.

NOTE: Please see a Liberal Arts advisor on the first floor of Jones Hall. Go to the College of Liberal Arts advising page and click on the blue button to make an appointment.

Required Course (3 hours)

- ORCO 3240 - Introduction to Organizational Communication 3 credit hours

Electives (12 hours)

In addition to the required course, students will take 12 hours of ORCO courses. No more than 3 hours of ORCO 4210 and/or ORCO 4220 may be taken. Also, no more than 3 hours of ORCO 4000 may be taken.

The program in Organizational Communication with a concentration in Communication Studies is designed to provide students with maximum opportunities to develop theoretical and practical appreciation of all phases of human communication. For students following the Communication Studies concentration, preparation is offered for entry into communication work in business, industry, and government or for the pursuit of graduate study in a number of fields.

Communication Studies Concentration

Courses focus on developing a wide range of skills to promote effective communication, problem-solving abilities and knowledge of diverse cultures in order to prepare students for a wide variety of careers.

Students pursuing the Communication Studies concentration plan of study must also select at least one minor.

Courses in the Department of English meet the General Education needs of all students through the development of verbal and written communication skills and the appreciation of literature.

The department offers five undergraduate major programs, all leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree: The traditional English major, the English major with concentrations in Writing, Cultural Studies, Literary Studies, or the English major with a concentration in Secondary Education Teaching Licensure.

The non-teaching, traditional Bachelor of Arts in English is designed to give students a well-rounded background in the study of the English language and its literature. The four concentrations allow students to pursue special career and/or intellectual interests.

The main goal of the Cultural Studies concentration is to provide students with the opportunity to examine culture through the study of texts within an interdisciplinary framework. Students may choose a general cultural studies curriculum or they may specialize within the concentration by choosing courses in an area such as women in literature, popular literature, folklore, world literature, children's literature, multicultural literature, etc. The course of study is designed to help students broaden their understanding of the relationship between culture and literature.

The Literary Studies concentration is designed to provide students with the opportunity to take a greater number of advanced courses in literature and to focus on their interests within specific areas of English studies. Students may choose to emphasize a period, an author, or a genre or they may choose to increase their general knowledge of the field. Many students choose the Literary Studies concentration as a preparation for graduate or professional school. The Secondary Education Teacher Licensure concentration is for students who wish to teach English in grades 7-12. English department courses in this concentration are chosen to provide students with a strong background in the subject they will be teaching. Students pursuing this curriculum along with the requirements of the licensure program will be prepared to teach 7-12 English in the state of Tennessee.

The Writing concentration gives students who are interested in developing themselves as writers the opportunity to do so while pursuing a major in English. Students may choose a general writing curriculum or they may specialize within the concentration by choosing courses in one area such as creative or professional writing.

Students in the English program have gone on to careers in editing, teaching, public relations, management, public service, and many other areas that value clarity of expression and logical thinking. In addition, many students have gone on to graduate programs, law school, and other professional education.

All students in the English Department are assigned an advisor upon declaration of an English major. Students should meet with their advisors for guidance in planning their schedules and fulfilling all requirements. Those intending to get a professional license to teach English must consult with their advisors early in their university careers in order to ensure completion of the degree in a timely fashion. The University does not recommend anyone for licensure in English who has not satisfied requirements set by the College of Education for post baccalaureate endorsement.

The English Department participates in interdisciplinary majors and minors in African American Studies; American Culture; Classical Studies; Early Modern European Studies; Environment and Human Society; Film Studies; Global Studies; Great Books; Jewish and Holocaust Studies; Linguistic Studies; Media, History, and Culture; Medieval Studies; Middle Eastern Studies; Native American Studies; Russian Studies; Southern Studies; Twentieth-Century European Studies; Women's and Gender Studies; and Writing. Interdisciplinary minors are open to all students in the University. (See Interdisciplinary Majors and Minors section for more information.)

Before beginning the junior year, students should fill out an upper-division form with an advisor and file it with the graduation coordinator for Liberal Arts. For 3000- and 4000-level courses, there is normally a prerequisite of 9 semester hours of English with a grade of C- or better.

General Requirements

A minimum of 9 semester hours in General Education composition and literature is required of all students for graduation. Students complete this requirement by taking ENGL 1010 and ENGL 1020 in sequence and ENGL 2020, ENGL 2030, or HUM 2610.

Students must pass ENGL 1010 and ENGL 1020 in sequence before taking ENGL 2020 or ENGL 2030 or HUM 2610. A minimum grade of C- in ENGL 1010 and ENGL 1020 is required to receive credit.

On the basis of ACT or SAT scores, MTSU will place students in the appropriate English course or require further testing. Students without ACT or SAT scores are required to take a placement test. (See University Studies for more information.)

Students whose native language is not English are required to take a placement test and may be required to enroll in ENGL 1008 or ENGL 1009 for ESL students before being allowed to enroll in ENGL 1010.

Some students are eligible for advanced standing credit to meet General Education English requirements. (See Advanced Standing for more information.)

Successful completion of ENGL 1008, ENGL 1009, ENGL 1010, and ENGL 1020 requires a grade of C- or better. The grade of N may be awarded in ENGL 1008, ENGL 1009, ENGL 1010, and ENGL 1020. An N may be awarded only to students who are completing the course for the first time and who have met all course requirements (including completing all writing assignments and meeting attendance requirements) yet who have not demonstrated satisfactory writing skills to pass the course with a C- or better. The grade of N can be assigned only for a student's first completed attempt of ENGL 1008, ENGL 1009, ENGL 1010, and/or ENGL 1020; in subsequent attempts the student will be assigned a grade of F if minimum writing standards are not met. The grade of N is not punitive; it will calculate into Hours Attempted but not into Quality Hours, and thus it will not have an impact upon a student's GPA. However, since the grade is calculated into Attempted Hours, students receiving financial aid are strongly encouraged to contact the Financial Aid Office to see what, if any, impact an N grade may have on their status.

The English major is considered a "resident" major. Students may not apply more than twelve (12) hours of upper-division distance learning (Web-based, correspondence, or videoconference) to the major without permission of advisor. English minors may not apply more than three hours of upper-division distance learning towards the minor without permission of advisor.

All students will complete the required 9 semester hours of English General Education by passing the following courses in the sequence in which they are listed.

1. ENGL 1010
2. ENGL 1020
3. ENGL 2020 or ENGL 2030

Teacher Licensure

Students seeking a license to teach in secondary schools (grades 7-12) must complete (1) a major in the subject they intend to teach; (2) a minor approved for the B.A. degree (see Academic Policies and Procedures) or any interdisciplinary minor (see Interdisciplinary Majors and Minors); and (3) the Secondary Education Minor.

Special Topics and Selected Topics Courses

The English Department curriculum includes courses that focus on special topics of interest to students and faculty. Courses such as ENGL 3450, ENGL 4230, ENGL 4570, ENGL 4750, ENGL 4860, and the entire ENGL 4900 course sequence make it possible to offer a greater variety of courses to satisfy degree requirements. The following is only a partial list of the special topics offered by the department. New special topics are approved every year.

Elvira Casal, program coordinator

E.Casal@mtsu.edu

A major in English without a specific concentration (the "traditional" or general major) consists of 33 upper-division semester hours.

1. Students should take the required ENGL 3000 as soon as possible after declaring an English major or completing freshman and sophomore General Education requirements for English. The other core courses should be distributed throughout the student's remaining time at the University. It is not recommended to take all three in one semester.
2. In addition to the required four core courses (ENGL 3000, ENGL 3010, ENGL 3020, and ENGL 3030), one course must be completed from each of the following areas: I, II, III, IV, VII, and VIII. Also, one course must be completed from Area V or Area VI.
 - I. British Literature I: Courses numbered 3100 or 4100 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on British literature before the Restoration)
 - II. British Literature II: Courses numbered 3200 or 4200 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on British literature after the Restoration)
 - III. American Literature: Courses numbered 3300 or 4300 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on American literature)
 - IV. International Literature and Intellectual Backgrounds: Courses numbered 3400 or 4400 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on world literature, or such courses outside the department as HUM 3950 and WGST 4209)
 - V. Grammar and Language: Courses numbered 3500 or 4500
 - VI. Writing: Courses numbered 3600 or 4600
 - VII. Gender and Cultural Studies: Courses numbered 3700 or 4700 (or a 3900/4900 special topics courses focusing on gender or cultural studies, or such courses outside the department as FREN 3130 and WGST courses focusing on literature)
 - VIII. Film and Popular Literature: Courses numbered 3800 or 4800 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on popular literature or with a substantial film component)
3. Courses from the Special Topics 3900/4900 number sequence will apply to the category(ies) appropriate to the topic. Each special topics course will be substituted into the appropriate category by the student's advisor.
4. When taught by an English faculty member, certain interdisciplinary Honors seminars (UH 3500 and UH 4600) may be substituted, with approval, in one of the above groups.
5. Students who wish to pursue the concentrations in Cultural Studies, Literary Studies, or Writing will have most of the same requirements as the majors without a concentration, but they will take six additional hours and will only be required to take courses from six out of the seven areas of English studies above.
6. Students who wish to pursue a license to teach English in grades 7-12 should carefully follow the major requirements outlined in English, Secondary English Teacher Licensure Concentration, B.A.
7. Students may not apply more than twelve (12) hours of upper-division distance learning (web-based, correspondence, videoconferencing, or other format) without special permission. No more than three (3) of these hours may be taken outside MTSU.
8. ENGL 1010, ENGL 1020, ENGL 2020, ENGL 2030, or other lower-division English courses may not be counted as part of the hours required for an English major.

Majors are expected to consult a member of the English faculty each semester regarding the selection and arrangement of electives. Recommended minors for English majors include Foreign Language, History, Linguistics, Philosophy, Political Science, Theatre, Film Studies, Writing, and Women's and Gender Studies, but students may choose a minor either from those listed under the B.A. requirements (see Academic Policies and Procedures) or from the interdisciplinary minors (see Interdisciplinary Majors and Minors).

Beginning with Fall 2012, English majors are instructed to keep the English 3000 essay and two other essays from different upper-division classes for submission in the senior writing portfolio. ENGL 4999 (senior writing portfolio) will be required of all English majors graduating under the 2012-13 or later catalogs.

Major in English Core Courses (12 hours)

All English majors are required to take the following four core courses:

- ENGL 3000 - Introduction to Literary Studies 3 credit hours
- ENGL 3010 - British Literature I: Beginnings to 1700 3 credit hours
- ENGL 3020 - British Literature II: 1700-1918 3 credit hours
- ENGL 3030 - American Literature: Colonial Era to the Present 3 credit hours

Recommended Curriculum: English

All students pursuing a major in English must complete the General Education requirements and the requirements for a Bachelor of Arts degree. Students may not begin upper-division English studies until they have completed ENGL 1010, ENGL 1020, ENGL 2020, and ENGL 2030. Typically, students will begin upper-division English studies in the second semester of their sophomore year with ENGL 3000 and one other English course.

The Academic Maps provide examples of a recommended plan of studies for students who wish to complete their academic requirements within a four-year period. However, there is no single way to complete the program. The department is generally flexible about the order in which courses are taken so long as prerequisites are met. Each English major has an assigned academic advisor. Consulting this advisor regularly will help the student to individualize the program to his or her own needs and interests.

Curricular listings include General Education requirements in Communication, History, Humanities and/or Fine Arts, Mathematics, Natural Sciences, and Social/Behavioral Sciences categories.

Elvira Casal, program coordinator

E.Casal@mtsu.edu

A major in English with a concentration in Cultural Studies consists of a minimum of 39 upper-division hours.

1. Students should take the required ENGL 3000 as soon as possible after declaring an English major or completing freshman and sophomore General Education requirements for English. The other core courses should be distributed throughout each student's remaining time at the university. It is not recommended to take all three in one semester.
2. In addition to the four core courses (ENGL 3000, ENGL 3010, ENGL 3020, and ENGL 3030) that all English majors must take, an English major with a Cultural Studies concentration must take one of the following courses:
 - a. ENGL 3815 - Survey of Popular Culture
 - b. ENGL 3360 - Multicultural Literature of the United States
 - c. ENGL 3760 - Introduction to Folklore
3. The Cultural Studies concentration also includes a 3-credit, upper division course from outside the department. Students may choose from this list or consult their advisors for an appropriate substitution: AAS 4600, ANTH 3410, EMC 3650 / JOUR 3650, HIST 4740, HIST 4750, MUHL 3670, PHIL 3500, PHIL 4800, PS 4230, PS 4920, PS 4930, PSY 4820, SOC 3060, SOC 4511, TXMD 2200, or WGST 4201-4213.
4. Students will also select seven additional upper-division English courses (21 hours) reflecting the student's interests.
5. Including the concentration requirements, courses must represent at least six of the eight areas of English studies:
 - I. British Literature I: Courses numbered 3100 or 4100 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on British literature before the Restoration)
 - II. British Literature II: Courses numbered 3200 or 4200 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on British literature after the Restoration)
 - III. American Literature: Courses numbered 3300 or 4300 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on American literature)
 - IV. International Literature and Intellectual Backgrounds: Courses numbered 3400 or 4400 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on world literature, or such courses outside the department as HUM 3950 and WGST 4209)
 - V. Grammar and Language: Courses numbered 3500 or 4500
 - VI. Writing: Courses numbered 3600 or 4600
 - VII. Gender and Cultural Studies: Courses numbered 3700 or 4700 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on gender or cultural studies, or such courses outside the department as FREN 3130 and WGST courses focusing on literature)
 - VIII. Film and Popular Literature: Courses numbered 3800 or 4800 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on popular literature or with a substantial film component)
2. Courses from the Special Topics 3900/4900 number sequence get credit in different categories depending on the topic.
3. When taught by an English faculty member, certain interdisciplinary Honors seminars (UH 3500 and 4600) may be substituted, with approval, in one of the above groups.
4. Students who wish to pursue a license to teach English in grades 7-12 should carefully follow the major requirements outlined in English, Secondary English Teacher Licensure Concentration, B.A. Students interested in the "classic" major without concentration should consult the description of the English, B.A. Students interested in other concentrations should consult the English, Literary Studies Concentration, B.A. or the English, Writing Concentration, B.A.
5. Students may not apply more than twelve (12) hours of upper-division distance learning (web-based, correspondence, videoconferencing, or other format) without special permission. No more than three (3) of these hours may be taken outside MTSU.

6. ENGL 1010, ENGL 1020, ENGL 2020, ENGL 2030, or other lower-division English courses may not be counted as part of the hours required for the English major.

Majors are expected to consult a member of the English staff each semester regarding the selection and arrangement of electives. Recommended minors for English majors include Foreign Languages, History, Philosophy, Political Science, Theatre, Film Studies, Writing, and Women's and Gender Studies, but students may choose any minor from those listed under the B.A. requirements (see Academic Policies and Procedures) or Interdisciplinary Majors and Minors.

Beginning with Fall 2012, English majors are instructed to keep the English 3000 essay and two other essays from different upper-division classes for submission in the senior writing portfolio. ENGL 4999 (senior writing portfolio) will be required of all English majors graduating under the 2012-13 or later catalogs

Major in English Core Courses (12 hours)

All English majors are required to take the following four core courses:

- ENGL 3000 - Introduction to Literary Studies 3 credit hours
- ENGL 3010 - British Literature I: Beginnings to 1700 3 credit hours
- ENGL 3020 - British Literature II: 1700-1918 3 credit hours
- ENGL 3030 - American Literature: Colonial Era to the Present 3 credit hours

Recommended Curriculum: English, Cultural Studies

All students pursuing a major in English must complete the General Education requirements and the requirements for a Bachelor of Arts degree. Students may not begin upper-division English studies until they have completed ENGL 1010, ENGL 1020, ENGL 2020, and ENGL 2030. Typically students will begin upper-division English studies in the second semester of their sophomore year with ENGL 3000 and one other English course.

The Academic Maps provide examples of a recommended plan of studies for students who wish to complete their academic requirements within a four-year period. However, there is no single way to complete the program. The department is generally flexible about the order in which courses are taken so long as prerequisites are met. Each English major has an assigned academic advisor. Consulting with this advisor regularly will help the student to individualize the program to his or her own needs and interests.

Curricular listings include General Education requirements in Communication, History, Humanities and/or Fine Arts, Mathematics, Natural Sciences, and Social/Behavioral Sciences categories.

A major in English that also satisfies the academic requirements for teacher licensure consists of a minimum of 32 upper-division semester hours.

1. Students should take the required ENGL 3000 as soon as possible after completing freshman and sophomore General Education requirements for English. The other core courses should be distributed throughout each student's remaining time at the University. It is not recommended to take all three in one semester.
2. In addition to the four core courses (ENGL 3000, ENGL 3010, ENGL 3020, and ENGL 3030 that all English majors must take, an English major with a Secondary Teacher Licensure Concentration must take ENGL 3745, ENGL 4500, and either ENGL 3510 or ENGL 4510.
3. Students must also take one course from each of the following groups:
 - a. Shakespeare (ENGL 3135, ENGL 4130, ENGL 4140)
 - b. Multicultural Literature (ENGL 3735, ENGL 3300, ENGL 3340, ENGL 3360, or ENGL 3365)
 - c. European Literature in Translation (ENGL 3400, ENGL 3420, or ENGL 3430)
4. An additional two (2) hours of upper-division English electives are required and are usually satisfied with a 3-hour course. Approved electives include ENGL 3410, ENGL 3450, ENGL 4540, ENGL 4605, ENGL 3760, ENGL 4750, or an additional course from 3b or 3c above.
5. With advisor approval, courses from the Special Topics, 3900/4900 number sequence, and literature courses offered outside the department or certain interdisciplinary Honors seminars (UH 3500 and 4600) may be substituted, when appropriate, for the multicultural, European, or guided electives above. Students must consult with their advisors before enrolling in any course that is not listed above, as not all substitutions are possible or appropriate.
6. This concentration is for students who wish to become high school English teachers. Students whose primary ambition is to teach English at the college level should look into a program that will prepare them for admission to graduate school. Students who do not wish to teach 7-12 should explore the "classic" English, B.A. without concentration or the English, Cultural Studies Concentration, B.A.; English, Literary Studies Concentration, B.A.; or the English, Writing Concentration, B.A.
7. Students may not apply more than twelve (12) hours of upper-division distance learning (web-based, correspondence, videoconferencing, or other format) without special permission. No more than three (3) hours may be taken outside MTSU.
8. ENGL 1010, ENGL 1020, ENGL 2020, ENGL 2030, or other lower-division English courses may not be counted as part of the hours required for an English major.

Students wishing licensure to teach in the State of Tennessee must also complete the Secondary Education Minor. In addition, students must choose a second minor. Recommended minors for English majors include Anthropology, Foreign Languages, History, Philosophy, Psychology, Political Science, Theatre, Film Studies, Writing, and Women's and Gender Studies, but students may choose any minor from those listed under the B.A. requirements (see Academic Policies and Procedures) or Interdisciplinary Majors and Minors.

In order to complete the English licensure program in four years, students are encouraged to work closely with a faculty advisor. It is important to declare the major early and to consult the English advisor regularly to ensure enrollment in the right courses in the best sequence.

Beginning with Fall 2012, English majors are instructed to keep the English 3000 essay and two other essays from different upper-division classes for submission in the senior writing portfolio. ENGL 4999 (senior writing portfolio) will be required of all English majors graduating under the 2012-13 or later catalogs.

- ENGL 3000 - Introduction to Literary Studies 3 credit hours
- ENGL 3010 - British Literature I: Beginnings to 1700 3 credit hours
- ENGL 3020 - British Literature II: 1700-1918 3 credit hours
- ENGL 3030 - American Literature: Colonial Era to the Present 3 credit hours

Recommended Curriculum: English, Secondary English Teacher Licensure

All students pursuing a major in English must complete the General Education requirements and the requirements for a Bachelor of Arts degree. Students may not begin upper-division English studies until they have completed ENGL 1010, ENGL 1020, ENGL 2020, and ENGL 2030. Typically, students will begin upper-division English studies in the second semester of their sophomore year with ENGL 3000 and one other English course.

Students wishing to earn teaching licensure within four years must begin their foreign language requirements during the first semester of the freshman year, especially if they have deficiencies (that is, if they need to take FL 1010 and 1020 before the required 2010 and 2020). Students should also apply for admission to the licensure program no later than the beginning of their sophomore year in order to be on track to take YOED 2500 during the second semester of their sophomore year.

The Academic Maps provide examples of a recommended plan of studies for students who wish to complete their academic requirements within a four-year period. However, there is no single way to complete the program. The department is generally flexible about the order in which courses are taken so long as prerequisites are met. The other core courses should be distributed throughout each student's remaining time at the university. It is not recommended to take all three in one semester.
2. In addition to the four core courses (ENGL 3000, ENGL 3010, ENGL 3020, and ENGL 3030) that all English majors must take, Writing concentration students must take a grammar/language course (ENGL 3570, ENGL 4510, ENGL 4520, ENGL 4530, or ENGL 4570) and a genre course (ENGL 3350, ENGL 3450, ENGL 3825, ENGL 4425, ENGL 4470, ENGL 4910, ENGL 4920 or ENGL 4930, or ENGL 4940). Appropriate alternate courses may be approved by the English advisor.
3. Students will also choose three upper-division writing courses (9 hours) that reflect their interests. A student may choose to emphasize one type of writing or take courses from the entire English 3600-4600 sequence (excluding ENGL 3605).
4. The Writing concentration student must also take four additional upper-division courses (12 hours) from areas that have not been covered already by the genre, grammar, or writing requirements. One course must be chosen from four of the five following areas: I, II, III, VII, and VIII.
5. Including the concentration requirements, courses must represent at least six of the seven areas of English studies.
 - I. British Literature I: Courses numbered 3100 or 4100 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on British literature before the Restoration)
 - II. British Literature II: Courses numbered 3200 or 4200 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on British literature after the Restoration)
 - III. American Literature: Courses numbered 3300 or 4300 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on American literature)
 - IV. International Literature and Intellectual Backgrounds: Courses numbered 3400 or 4400 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on world literature, or such courses outside the department as HUM 3950 and WGST 4209)
 - V. Grammar and Language: Courses numbered 3500 or 4500
 - VI. Writing: Courses numbered 3600 or 4600
 - VII. Gender and Cultural Studies : Courses numbered 3700 or 4700 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on gender or cultural studies, or such courses outside the department as FREN 3130 and WGST courses focusing on literature)
 - VIII. Film and Popular Literature: Courses numbered 3800 or 4800 (or a 3900/4900 special topics course focusing on popular literature or with a substantial film component)
6. Courses from the Special Topics 3900/4900 number sequence get credit in different categories depending on the topic.
7. When taught by an English faculty member, certain interdisciplinary Honors seminars (UH 3500 and 4600) may be substituted, with approval, in one of the above groups.
8. Students who wish to pursue a license to teach English in grades 7-12 should carefully follow the major requirements outlined in English, Secondary English Teacher Licensure Concentration, B.A. Students interested in the "classic" major without concentration should consult the description of the English, B.A. Students interested in other concentrations should consult English, Cultural Studies Concentration, B.A. or English, Literary Studies Concentration, B.A.
9. Students may not apply more than twelve (12) hours of upper-division distance learning (web-based, correspondence, videoconferencing, or other format) without special permission. No more than three (3) of these hours may be taken outside MTSU.
10. ENGL 1010, ENGL 1020, ENGL 2020, ENGL 2030, or other lower-division English courses may not be counted as part of the hours required for the English major.

Majors are expected to consult a member of the English faculty each semester regarding the selection and arrangement of electives. Recommended minors for English majors include Foreign Language, History, Linguistics, Philosophy, Political Science, Theatre, Film Studies, Writing, and Women's and Gender Studies, but students may choose a minor either from those listed under the B.A. requirements or from the interdisciplinary minors. (See Interdisciplinary Majors and Minors for more information.)

Beginning with Fall 2012, English majors are instructed to keep the English 3000 essay and two other essays from different upper-division classes for submission in the senior writing portfolio. ENGL 4999 (senior writing portfolio) will be required of all English majors graduating under the 2012-13 or later catalogs.

Major in English Core Courses (12 hours)

All English majors are required to take the following four core courses:

- ENGL 3000 - Introduction to Literary Studies 3 credit hours
- ENGL 3010 - British Literature I: Beginnings to 1700 3 credit hours
- ENGL 3020 - British Literature II: 1700-1918 3 credit hours
- ENGL 3030 - American Literature: Colonial Era to the Present 3 credit hours

Recommended Curriculum: English, Writing

Curricular listings include General Education requirements in Communication, History, Humanities and/or Fine Arts, Mathematics, Natural Sciences, and Social/Behavioral Sciences categories.

All students pursuing a major in English must complete the General Education requirements and requirements for a Bachelor of Arts degree. Students may not begin upper-division English studies until they have completed ENGL 1010, ENGL 1020, ENGL 2020, and ENGL 2030. Typically, students will begin upper-division English studies in the second semester of their sophomore year with ENGL 3000 and one other English course.

The Academic Maps provide examples of a recommended plan of studies for students who wish to complete their academic requirements within a four-year period. However, there is no single way to complete the program. The department is generally flexible about the order in which courses are taken so long as prerequisites are met. Each English major has an assigned academic advisor. Consulting with this advisor regularly will help the student to individualize the program to his or her own needs and interests.

Foreign Languages and Literatures

Roger Pieroni, Chair

Ananth, Da, Diaz, Goldberg, Hedgepeth, Heine, Lyons, Maisonneuve, McBreen, McCullough, McRae, Mistrion, Morris, Neely, Nogueira, Novella, Pettigrew, Rice, Sather, Thomas

Courses in foreign languages and literatures are designed to meet the needs of all students and to develop communication skills and appreciation of cultures and literatures. The major is offered for those preparing to teach foreign languages, for students wishing to develop proficiency in the languages, for students preparing for international careers, and for students planning for graduate study.

The major in Foreign Languages has four concentrations-French, German, Japanese, and Spanish-and leads to either the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree. Minors are offered in French, German, Humanities, Italian, Japanese, and Spanish and courses in Arabic, Chinese, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Kurdish, Latin, Portuguese, and Russian are available.

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures coordinates interdisciplinary minors in Early Modern European Studies, Latin American Studies, Linguistic Studies, and Portuguese Studies. Interdisciplinary minors are open to all students in the University. (See Interdisciplinary Majors and Minors section for more information.)

The department participates in several Study Abroad programs. Contact the department or MTSU Office of Education Abroad for additional information.

Teacher Licensure

Students seeking a license to teach a foreign language in secondary schools (grades 7-12) must complete (1) a major in the language they intend to teach; (2) FL 4500 - Introduction to Teaching Foreign Languages; (3) a minor; and (4) the Secondary Education minor. Each student must pass an oral interview in the target language at the high intermediate level.

Minor Requirements

Students must take a 15-18 hour approved minor acceptable for a B.A. degree.

Secondary Education Minor Requirements

Students must contact their Secondary Education minor advisors for approval of appropriate courses.

Advanced Placement Credit

A student scoring 3 or above on the Advanced Placement Exam for French, German, Latin, or Spanish of The College Entrance Examination Board (CEEB) will receive 6 credit hours (1010 and 1020). In addition, a student possessing knowledge of French, Spanish, German, or Latin resulting from high school study, family background, or foreign travel may earn up to 12 hours lower-division credit on the basis of a placement examination, provided the student does not already have college credit in the language for which he/she is seeking placement credit and provided the student successfully completes one course in the language at MTSU.

Students may make arrangements to take the placement test in the Media Lab, Boutwell Dramatic Arts Building 303B.

NOTE: No student is permitted to take 1010, 1020, 1040, 2010, and 2020 in a foreign language out of sequence without the permission of the instructor. Similarly, no student who has successfully completed an upper-level course will be permitted to enroll in a lower-division course in the same language without the permission of the instructor.

Procedures for Foreign Language Credit through Placement Testing/Study Abroad

For further information, see Procedures for Foreign Language Credit through Placement Testing/Study Abroad.

Class Attendance Policy

The instructor can at his/her own discretion drop a student after two class meetings if the student fails to attend the first two class meetings.

Graduate Study

The department offers the Master of Arts in Teaching degree and an Accelerated Bachelors/Masters degree in the French concentration. Requirements for these degrees and a list of the courses offered for graduate credit are published in the Graduate Catalog.

Humanities Minor

Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures

Advisor: Dr. Leah Tolbert Lyons

The Humanities minor is an undergraduate program that promotes intellectual inquiry through the humanities, exploring a variety of topics relative to the modern human condition thought and values as depicted in literature, film, and culture. Through the Humanities minor, students will understand ways in which various peoples throughout history and across geographic boundaries have expressed ideals and values rooted in/surrounding the human condition. The Humanities minor enhances one's ability to critically assess texts and ideas and to aptly communicate these assessments-skills that allow students to make effective contributions in the community and in the workplace. The minor requires 15 hours of upper-division courses in the HUM rubric.

Michael Parkinson, Director

Aliquo, Arndt, Bundage, Cancryn, Clark, Cornish, Davila, Dawson, DeBoer, Dent, Isley-Farmer, Kim, Linton, Little, Loucky, McWhirter, Miles, Morgan, Nadgir, Nies, Pigg, Reish, Shearon, Simmons, Smith, Thomas, Tipps, Vannatta-Hall, Waldecker, West Osterfield, Yelverton

The purposes of the School of Music are to educate and mentor music students to become articulate musicians, successful as music teachers, performers, composers, scholars, business persons in music-related enterprises, and/or students in advanced degree programs; to welcome students whose studies are concentrated in other fields into a community of music education and appreciation, instrumental and vocal instruction, and ensemble participation; to enrich the musical life of the University and community through public music performance and non-curricular instruction; and to provide leadership and maintain professional relationships and activities with musicians regionally, nationally, and internationally.

The school offers programs leading to the Bachelor of Music degree. Students may choose from six concentrations within this major-Instrumental Music Education, Vocal/General Music Education K-12, Voice Performance, Instrumental Performance, Music Industry, and Theory-Composition. Minors in Music, American Music Studies, and Music Industry are also available.

The Philip C. Howard Music Library, located within Instructional Media Resources in Walker Library 262, houses audio and video recordings, musical scores, and reference materials. Anyone with a valid MTSU ID may borrow scores. Recordings circulate only to faculty and staff but may be used by anyone in-house.

The School of Music has been an accredited baccalaureate and graduate degree granting institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music since 1970. The Bachelor of Music degree programs with concentrations in Instrumental Music Education and Vocal/General Music Education K-12 are accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE).

The School of Music encourages its students to consider study abroad. MTSU is a member of two study-abroad consortia: KIIS (Kentucky Institute for International Studies) and CCSA (Cooperative Center for Study Abroad). Students may earn academic credit for their participation in these programs, and financial aid from MTSU may be used for them. Interested students should contact the Study Abroad Office, (615) 898-5179, and check the consortia Web sites at www.kiis.org and www.nku.edu/ccsa.

Requirements for Admission to the Bachelor of Music Degree

To be admitted into the Bachelor of Music degree program, all entering students must pass an audition before the faculty on their major instrument or voice. Students who do not pass the audition may be allowed, at the discretion of the faculty, to enroll in private music lessons or class instruction for one semester only. At the end of the semester the student must reaudition for admission into the program.

In addition, all prospective new or transfer undergraduate majors and minors are required to take the Music Theory and Aural Skills Diagnostic Exam to determine appropriate placement in the music theory program. For additional information and to schedule a time for the exam, contact the School of Music Office. Students may not enroll in any music theory course until the exam is taken.

Students seeking a Bachelor of Music degree should refer to The School of Music Undergraduate Student Handbook that serves as the official document of the school concerning specific additional degree requirements and school policies and procedures. It is essential that all music majors consult their advisors each semester.

Beyond the Classroom

School of Music student performance organizations are listed below. Each welcomes qualified non-Music majors and performs frequently throughout the year. Many travel to perform regionally, nationally, and internationally.

To be admitted into the Bachelor of Music degree program, all entering students must pass an audition before the faculty on their major instrument or voice. Students who do not pass the audition may be allowed, at the discretion of the faculty, to enroll in private music lessons or class instruction for one semester only. At the end of the semester the student must reaudit for admission into the program.

In addition, all prospective new or transfer undergraduate majors and minors are required to take the Music Theory and Aural Skills Diagnostic Exam to determine appropriate placement in the music theory program. For additional information and to schedule a time for the exam, contact the School of Music Office. Students may not enroll in any music theory course until the exam is taken.

Students seeking a Bachelor of Music degree should refer to The School of Music Undergraduate Student Handbook that serves as the official document of the school concerning specific additional degree requirements and school policies and procedures. It is essential that all music majors consult their advisors each semester.

Undergraduate Music majors must pass an upper-division jury to qualify for applied music study at the MUAP 3000 level. A Music major must take his or her upper-division jury no later than the end of the sixth semester and if not passing must take an upper-division jury again the next semester. A third attempt must be accompanied by extraordinary circumstances and must carry the approval of the studio teacher and director of the School of Music.

Class Piano/Theory and Aural Skills

All undergraduate music majors (except keyboard principals) must take class piano every semester as indicated on the advising check sheets until the required piano proficiency exam is successfully completed. Concurrent enrollment in Class Piano I and Theory and Aural Skills I is required, with the following exceptions: (1) The student successfully passed either Class Piano I or Theory and Aural Skills I, but not both, or (2) the student successfully passed one or more levels of Class Piano by examination. Students should see their advisors for details.

Students wishing to continue piano after successfully completing the required class piano sequence may audition for piano applied lessons.

Keyboard principals must take MUS 2550, Keyboard Skills for Pianists I, and MUS 2560, Keyboard Skills for Pianists II, in lieu of class piano.

Jury Examinations

All music majors and minors are required to participate in jury examinations in their primary performing areas. Non-music majors registered for private lessons may be required to perform a jury examination at the discretion of the instructor. Jury examinations are held to measure the student's progress at the conclusion of each semester. Those students who have presented and passed their senior recitals during the semester may be excused from jury examinations.

Undergraduate Music majors must pass an upper-division jury to qualify for applied music study at the MUAP 3000 level. A Music major must take his or her upper-division jury no later than the end of the sixth semester and if not passing must take an upper-division jury again the next semester. A third attempt must be accompanied by extraordinary circumstances and must carry the approval of the studio teacher and director of the School of Music.

Class Piano/Theory and Aural Skills

All undergraduate music majors (except keyboard principals) must take class piano every semester as indicated on the advising check sheets until the required piano proficiency exam is successfully completed. Concurrent enrollment in Class Piano I and Theory and Aural Skills I is required, with the following exceptions: (1) The student successfully passed either Class Piano I or Theory and Aural Skills I, but not both, or (2) the student successfully passed one or more levels of Class Piano by examination. Students should see their advisors for details.

Students wishing to continue piano after successfully completing the required class piano sequence may audition for piano applied lessons.

Keyboard principals must take MUS 2550, Keyboard Skills for Pianists I, and MUS 2560, Keyboard Skills for Pianists II, in lieu of class piano.

Teacher Licensure

Students seeking a license to teach music in the public schools must complete (1) a major in Music following the concentration in either Instrumental Music Education or Vocal/General Music Education K–12, (2) minor in Secondary Education, (3) the General Education Program, and (4) additional teacher licensure requirements. Christine Isley-Farmer, program coordinator
Christine.Isley-Farmer@mtsu.edu

To be admitted into the Bachelor of Music degree program, all entering students must pass an audition before the faculty on their major instrument or voice. Students who do not pass the audition may be allowed, at the discretion of the faculty, to enroll in private music lessons or class instruction for one semester only. At the end of the semester the student must reaudition for admission into the program.

In addition, all prospective new or transfer undergraduate majors and minors are required to take the Music Theory and Aural Skills Diagnostic Exam to determine appropriate placement in the music theory program. For additional information and to schedule a time for the exam, contact the School of Music Office. Students may not enroll in any music theory course until the exam is taken.

Students seeking a Bachelor of Music degree should refer to The School of Music Undergraduate Student Handbook that serves as the official document of the school concerning specific additional degree requirements and school policies and procedures. It is essential that all music majors consult their advisors each semester.

MUAP 4351 - Private Instruction-Piano1 credit hour

Promotion to the upper division does not follow automatically after the completion of four semesters of courses in the lower division but is made only upon the successful completion of the upper-division jury. This jury, normally given at the end of the sophomore year to music majors, is conducted by the School of Music. Recommendation to upper division is made only if the student's proficiency as a performer bears promise of future artistic qualities as a soloist. It is at this level that the music major normally begins preparation for his/her junior and/or senior recital. A student who fails to pass the upper-division jury must continue lower-division private instruction until the jury is passed. Private instruction course numbers will be repeated for each semester of study. A one-credit course requires one half-hour lesson per week. Two- and three-credit courses are for music majors only and require one hour-long lesson per week. A corequisite enrollment in an appropriate music ensemble is required for students registered for private instruction in voice, brass, woodwinds, orchestral strings, and percussion. After successful completion of the upper-division jury, a student must be enrolled for a minimum of three semesters before being allowed to give the senior recital. Students must pass the upper-division performance jury before being allowed to student teach. Fees per semester are $325 for a one-hour lesson and $175 for a half-hour lesson.

Promotion to the upper division does not follow automatically after the completion of four semesters of courses in the lower division but is made only upon the successful completion of the upper-division jury. This jury, normally given at the end of the sophomore year to music majors, is conducted by the McLean School of Music. Recommendation to upper division is made only if the student's proficiency as a performer bears promise of future artistic qualities as a soloist. It is at this level that the music major normally begins preparation for his/her junior and/or senior recital. A student who fails to pass the upper-division jury must continue lower-division private instruction until the jury is passed. Private instruction course numbers will be repeated for each semester of study. A one-credit course requires one half-hour lesson per week. Two- and three-credit courses are for music majors only and require one hour-long lesson per week. A corequisite enrollment in an appropriate music ensemble is required for students registered for private instruction in voice, brass, woodwinds, orchestral strings, and percussion. After successful completion of the upper-division jury, a student must be enrolled for a minimum of three semesters before being allowed to give the senior recital. Students must pass the upper-division performance jury before being allowed to student teach. Three-credit private instruction courses are designed for only those students majoring in music with performance as their concentration. Students enrolled in these courses will receive one hour of instruction per week. Although three-credit courses meet for the same length of time as two-credit courses, students enrolled are expected to spend more time in preparation for their lessons and perform more repertoire during the course of the semester as assigned by the instructor.

Political Science and International Relations

Stephen D. Morris, Chair

Byrnes, Carleton, Franklin, Korobkov, Langenbach, Lefler, Livingston, Maynor, McDaniel, Petersen, Tesi, Vernardakis, Wang, Willis

Courses in the Department of Political Science and International Relations meet the needs of many students: those interested in public service, private business, or professional careers; those who wish to go to law school; those interested in international relations and foreign service employment in the public or private sector; and those interested in teaching government and social studies in secondary schools.

To accommodate these needs and interests within the objectives of liberal education, the department offers programs leading to the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science. The major areas and appropriate degrees follow:

1. a Political Science major (B.A. or B.S.) with either a
 - a. general focus or
 - b. Public Administration concentration or
 - c. Pre-law concentration;
2. an International Relations major (B.A. or B.S.).

Minors are offered in Political Science, International Relations, Public Administration, and Political and Civic Engagement.

The department coordinates the interdisciplinary minors in African Studies, Urban Studies, Paralegal Studies, and Russian Studies. Interdisciplinary minors are open to all students at the University.

All students at the University must fulfill the General Education requirements. These courses are primarily in the fields of English, history, science, and mathematics. Students should study the requirements carefully and consult with their advisors on those courses.

Honors College

The department offers these courses in Honors:

- PS 1005 Introduction to American Politics (Spring)
- PS 1010 Introduction to Global Politics (Fall)
- PS 4230 Classical Political Theory (Fall)

Graduate Study

The department offers a M.A. degree in International Affairs and a graduate minor in Political Science. Requirements and a list of the courses offered for graduate credit are published in the Graduate Catalog.

Stephen Morris, program coordinator
Stephen.Morris@mtsu.edu

Students majoring in Political Science can choose a general focus or a concentration in either Public Administration or Pre-law.

The Pre-law concentration is designed for the student who plans to attend law school. A combination of core political science courses and courses in related disciplines has been found to provide a sound background for law school. Some law schools will not accept any professional or technical courses as part of their minimum requirement. It is essential that the student consult with his or her advisor in instances where such courses will be taken.

The concentration in Pre-law requires 37 semester hours of work, including

Required Courses

International Media Studies Minor

Department of Sociology and Anthropology

The International Media Studies minor is designed to offer students a broad understanding of the multiple types of media utilized globally and their impact upon populations, taking into special consideration cross-cultural variations. Students in the minor will be required to take a minimum of 15 semester hours.

Required for all International Media Studies minors

Interdisciplinary Minors

Interdisciplinary minors require the student to complete a minimum of 15 to 21 hours from a list of specific courses. Unless otherwise noted, a student may take no more than 6 hours of courses from a single department until he or she surpasses the required minimum number of hours necessary for completing the minor. Exceptions to this rule may be found within the discussions of several of the minors. In most cases, a student is also limited to just 3 hours of credit toward the minor in the same department or discipline in which he or she is taking a major. Except for the Paralegal Studies minor, no course may be counted both for major and minor credit. Students must fulfill all departmental prerequisites for any course within an interdisciplinary minor. In some cases, advisors may approve course substitutions within these program requirements.

Theatre and Dance

Jeff Gibson, Chair

Barksy, Boyd, Brooker, Donnell, Halladay, Hansen, Kays, Kennedy, Levin, Macon, Shamburger

Courses in the Department of Theatre and Dance are designed to meet the General Education needs of all students and to foster and sustain the understanding of theatre and dance within artistic, cultural, social, and historical contexts.

The department offers a major in Theatre with an option to complete a licensure program in Theatre (grades K-12). Minors in Dance, Entertainment Arts Design, and Theatre are available. The department also participates in the Entertainment Technology interdisciplinary minor. (See Interdisciplinary Majors and Minors for information.)

Cocurricular Programs

The Department of Theatre and Dance supports, directs, and staffs two cocurricular programs to supplement classroom theory and to benefit the University and surrounding communities. Students receive practical training through participation in cocurricular programs:

MTSU Dance Theatre-The MTSU Dance Theatre provides an exciting vehicle for performance experiences at Middle Tennessee State University where audiences see high-quality performances of ballet, jazz, tap, and modern dance. Company members perform in faculty choreography, adjudicated student compositions, and repertory works set by guest artists in workshops and residencies. Membership is by audition only, and auditions are held at the beginning of the fall semester and the end of the fall semester for the spring term. Students performing in the Fall Dance Concert must audition again at the end of the semester if they would like to perform in the Spring Dance Concert. Company members include both MTSU undergraduate and graduate students.

MTSU Theatre-The MTSU Theatre presents four major dramatic productions during the academic year. All MTSU Theatre performances are open to the public. Students majoring in Theatre participate in some aspect of each production. However, participation is open to all members of the University and local community.

Honors College

The Theatre and Dance Department offers Honors classes in DANC 1000 and THEA 1030.

Graduate Study

The department offers a limited selection of coursework at the graduate level, and when offered, these courses are taken in conjunction with undergraduate sections. The Graduate Catalog has details and course listings.

Global Studies and Cultural Geography Program

Douglas Heffington, Director

The Global Studies and Cultural Geography Program at MTSU provides a critical, in-depth understanding of the world around us through a multidisciplinary perspective. Drawing heavily upon the social sciences and humanities, Global Studies and Cultural Geography students examine, analyze, and experience firsthand the various connections between different people(s) and places in order to understand the events, trends, and phenomena shaping everyday human life in the rapidly changing world of the 21st century. Two concentrations are available--Global Studies and Cultural Geography. A certificate in United States Culture and Education is also offered as well as minors in Global Studies and Cultural Geography. (A teaching track concentration is also available. Contact Global Studies and Cultural Geography Program for more information).

The Global Studies concentration provides students with a systematic awareness of the global forces and processes directly transforming contemporary societies and individuals. Students achieve a thorough understanding of globalization through a course of study that combines study abroad and language skills with a broad-based educational background. This approach empowers Global Studies students with the tools to pursue graduate work, professional service, and careers in public and private sectors--here and abroad. Where there is the need--national, international, or intercultural--Global Studies students have the education and expertise to meet ever-changing global demands. Majors will select one of the following fields of study and one world region to study:

The Cultural Geography concentration offers a comprehensive, applicable skill set designed to understand the diversity of cultures and socio-geographic complexities found in human societies. Cultural geographers seek to understand how humans uniquely create, manipulate, and adapt to the places they inhabit by examining natural environments, cultural practices, and economic and political systems. Knowledge gained from the Cultural Geography concentration is valuable as contemporary societies are interacting globally with one another as never before. Cultural geographers identify and comprehend these changes and find solutions to a variety of sociocultural problems taking place. This marketable skill set is attractive to a wide range of employers in the public, private, and nonprofit sectors.

Cultural Geography Minor

The minor in Cultural Geography requires 18 hours (all in courses with a GEOG designation) to be selected by the student and approved by a member of the faculty assigned as advisor. The minor will be specific enough to support the student's academic and career paths.

Required Courses (6 hours)

- GEOG 2000 - Introduction to Regional Geography 3 credit hours
- GEOG 4360 - Cultural Geography 3 credit hours

Electives (12 hours)

- Selected from Cultural Geography course offerings.

James Chaney, program director

James.Chaney@mtsu.edu

The Cultural Geography concentration offers a comprehensive, applicable skill set designed to understand the diversity of cultures and socio-geographic complexities found in human societies. Cultural geographers seek to understand how humans uniquely create, manipulate, and adapt to the places they inhabit by examining natural environments, cultural practices, and economic and political systems. Knowledge gained from the Cultural Geography concentration is valuable as contemporary societies are interacting globally with one another as never before. Cultural geographers identify and comprehend these changes and find solutions to a variety of sociocultural problems taking place. This marketable skill set is attractive to a wide range of employers in the public, private, and nonprofit sectors.

Major Program Requirements

Global Studies and Cultural Geography Program

615-494-7744

Doug Heffington, program director

Doug.Heffingto@mtsu.edu

The Global Studies concentration provides students with a systematic awareness of the global forces and processes directly transforming contemporary societies and individuals. Students achieve a thorough understanding of globalization through a course of study that combines study abroad and language skills with a broad-based educational background. This approach empowers Global Studies students with the tools to pursue graduate work, professional service, and careers in public and private sectors—here and abroad. Where there is the need—national, international, or intercultural—Global Studies students have the education and expertise to meet ever-changing global demands. Majors will select one of the following fields of study and one world region to study:

Fields of Study

- Global Human Diversity and Multiculturalism
- Global Governance and Commerce
- Global Gender

Region

- Africa
- Asia
- Europe
- Middle East
- Latin America

Major Program Requirements

The Global Studies concentration requires a total of 39 hours. These include the six required Global Studies courses listed below for 18 hours credit. The remaining 21 hours are selected from the student's field of study (12 hours) and selected region (9 hours). The primary goal of the field of study and region class selection is to better prepare the Global Studies student with a specific emphasis coupled with a more focused world regional perspective. This approach offers preparation for majors to enter the global community and world marketplace.

Required General Education Courses (41 hours)

Students select courses in Communication, History, Humanities and/or Fine Arts, Mathematics, Natural Sciences, and Social/Behavioral Sciences. (See General Education.)

Required Courses (18 hours)

- GEOG 2000 - Introduction to Regional Geography 3 credit hours
- GEOG 4360 - Cultural Geography 3 credit hours
- GS 2010 - Introduction to Cross-Cultural Experiences 3 credit hours
- GS 3000 - Globalization 3 credit hours
- GS 3010 - Field Experience and Study Abroad 1 to 12 credit hours (3 credit hours)
- GS 4990 - Senior Seminar 3 credit hours

Field of Study (12 hours)

The student will select one of the following fields of study: Global Human Diversity and Multiculturalism (for those students interested in aspects of culture), Global Governance and Commerce (for those students interested in government, global affairs, and commerce), and Global Gender (for those students with interest in gender from a global perspective). The student will select 12 upper-division hours (3000- and 4000-level) of electives to meet the field of study requirement. No more than nine (9) hours can be selected from a specific or single discipline. Courses selected for each field of study will be global, multicultural, or transnational in nature and reflect the interest and career goals of the student. The student will select these 12 hours with the approval and guidance of the Global Studies advisor. Courses that may be used for fields of study are provided below. Each contains a global, international, or multicultural component. Note: Other courses may be used that are not on the list only with the approval of the program director. Courses for each field of study will be selected from the following colleges:

- Global Human Diversity and Multiculturalism: Courses will be selected from the College of Liberal Arts, College of Behavioral and Health Sciences, and the College of Mass Communication.
- Global Governance and Commerce: Courses will be selected from the College of Liberal Arts and the Jones College of Business.
- Global Gender: Courses will be selected from the College of Liberal Arts, College of Behavioral and Health Sciences, and the College of Mass Communication.

Region (9 hours)

Students will select one of the following world regions for further study: Africa, Asia, Europe, Latin America, and the Middle East. Classes that can be used for the region focus are provided at the end of this section. Note: Other courses may be used that are not on the list only with the approval of the program director.

Foreign Language (12 hours)

Global Studies majors will successfully complete 12 hours in a single foreign language that best suits their academic and career needs. This includes 1010, 1020, 2010, and 2020 courses for whichever language is selected.

Minor (15-18 hours)

Global Studies majors (in conjunction with the Global Studies advisor) will select a minor(s) that reflects their academic and professional goals, academic interests, plus enhance their degree and field of study. For example, a minor for Global Studies may be topical such as History, Women's and Gender Studies, or Religious Studies; regional such as Middle East Studies, Latin American Studies, or Russian Studies; skill driven such as Organizational Communication, Entrepreneurship, or Political and Civic Engagement; or focused on language such as Spanish, French, or Japanese.

Electives (needed to complete 120 hours)

These electives will reflect the student's academic and career interests and will be selected with the advisement of the Global Studies advisor.

United States Culture and Education Certificate

Global Studies and Cultural Geography Program

The United States Culture and Education certificate provide international students an opportunity to complete a short-term academic program of study that allows them to gain an understanding of American culture and to benefit from the opportunity to take courses in their area of interest at a leading U.S. university.

The program requires 12 semester hours.

Major Field Core (3 hours)

- GS 2500 - Understanding U.S. Culture and Education 3 credit hours

Electives (9 hours)

Students enrolled in the certificate program may select electives in their field of study or that meet their needs/interests from any department or program, subject to normal program and course restrictions (e.g., prerequisites, major, etc.) and/or any restrictions on enrollment specific to international students. Emphasis will be on selection of courses that meet the academic degree requirements and interests of the international student.

Geography

GEOG 2000 - Introduction to Regional Geography 3 credit hours

Required for all Global Studies and Cultural Geography majors and Cultural Geography minors. Examines world regions using the geographical perspective, identifying the main physical and cultural features, especially through the use of maps.

GEOG 2105 - Introduction to Latin American Studies 3 credit hours

(Same as SPAN 2105, PS 2105, SOC 2105, ART 2105, ANTH 2105.) A multidisciplinary, team-taught introduction to Latin America. Covers the cultures and societies of the region: pre-history, history, geography, politics, art, languages, and literatures. Required course for all Latin American Studies minors.

GEOG 3120 - Geography of Tennessee and the South 3 credit hours

(Same as HIST 3115.) Geography's influence upon Tennessee and the American South's development in local, regional, national, and global contexts. Examines the physical, cultural, political, and economic geographies and their role in shaping the state and the region.

GEOG 3402 - Cultural Geography Field Course 4 credit hours

Prerequisites: Permission of department. Required for all Cultural Geography majors. Supervised study in some geographical area/topic. Emphasis on cultural elements of the environment with special attention directed toward interpretation of cultural landscapes. For fees and specific credit, consult the instructor. Course has required off-campus activities.

GEOG 3410 - Cultures and Landscapes of the United States and Canada 3 credit hours

Study of cultural and physical features of the U.S. and Canada with focus on culture regions, settlements patterns, natural resources, and cultural landscapes.

GEOG 3420 - Latin America in the 21st Century: Challenges, New Opportunities 3 credit hours

Comprehensive survey of the human and physical geographies of Latin America. Examines the ecological, historical, cultural, economic, and political processes that shape the region. Emphasis placed on socioeconomic development, migration, globalization, and linkages.
