University College exists for the purpose of helping make student success possible for the traditional and nontraditional students it serves. The staff is organized within seven unique units to meet the specific needs of the community.

The Distance Education and Nontraditional Programs unit manages all distance programs, TN eCampus, and MTSU online courses. This group also assists faculty who would like to teach online through Distance Education Faculty Services and provides advising for all students who major in the degree programs awarded by the college.

The Academic Outreach unit oversees all off campus programs, including several remote teaching sites, the Middle Tennessee Education Center, and the Adult Degree Completion Program.

The Summer Sessions unit provides the administrative support necessary to operate the summer school program at MTSU. Students can make MTSU Summer sessions a part of their graduation strategy. Summer sessions can help a student stay on track or shorten the time to graduation, reduce the course load in other terms, or focus on courses that need full-time attention.

The University Studies Department provides a variety of support services to first-year and transfer students at MTSU. Their purpose is to provide academic placement support, transition support, and academic instruction and help where it is most appropriate for its target audience. The department offers the Bachelor of Science in Integrated Studies degree to students electing a broad-based educational experience.

Academic Advising provides academic advising services for University College students. In addition to course selection and registration, advisors provide specialized guidance and information to help undecided students select appropriate majors early in their academic careers.

The Administrative and Finance unit manages the human resource and administrative functions of the college. Additionally it houses the Professional Development office which manages hundreds of not-for-credit educational programs designed to meet specific needs of the public, corporations, state agencies, and other individuals and groups. It also manages the Public Services Grants and Awards programs as well as several contracts by which services are provided statewide to meet specific educational needs.

The Dual Enrollment unit works with high schools and high school students to offer MTSU courses that count both as high school and college credit.

The overriding mission in all departments is to provide programs that meet the ongoing educational and support needs of the adult nontraditional and traditional students they serve. A sense of customer service and student focus is pervasive throughout the culture of the college and its staff.

Distance Education Courses

Distance education courses, coordinated through the University College, include online and hybrid and TN eCampus online and synchronous online.

MTSU Online Courses

All instruction takes place through MTSU's learning management system. Students are expected to have access to a computer and the Internet for completion of course requirements. Professors may offer optional meetings but students cannot be penalized for non-attendance. Proctored exams may also be offered, and students who cannot attend the scheduled dates/times have the option of taking the exam at an approved off-campus site. Students who are most successful in online courses have excellent time management skills.

MTSU Hybrid Courses

A significant portion of instruction and activities in a hybrid class takes place in an online environment. Professors may require up to 15 hours of mandatory campus meetings (for an orientation, exams, presentations) per semester for hybrid courses. Students can be penalized for non-attendance at these scheduled events.

Additional information can be found on the Course Comparison Chart.

NOTE: MTSU online, hybrid, and TN eCampus courses may be used to satisfy some requirements for any degree offered at MTSU. Some degrees can be earned completely online.

TN eCampus Online Courses

In 2015 the "Focus on College and University Success Act" proposed the creation of local boards for the six public universities outside the University of Tennessee system: Austin Peay State University, Middle Tennessee State University, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Tech University, East Tennessee State University, and the University of Memphis. Even though the public universities are no longer governed by the Tennessee Board of Regents, they continue to collaborate and participate in initiatives that benefit our state's students. One such initiative is the TN eCampus online program through which colleges and universities work cooperatively to allow students to earn college degrees entirely online.

The program currently offers the following undergraduate online degrees:

- B.S. in Professional Studies
 - Professional Studies, Information Technology Concentration, B.S.
 - Professional Studies, International Organizational Leadership Concentration, B.S.
 - Professional Studies, Organizational Leadership Concentration, B.S.
 - Professional Studies, Healthcare Administration Concentration, B.S.

Students must

- earn a minimum of 120 hours;
- meet MTSU upper-division, residency, and senior hour requirements;
- meet MTSU General Education requirements;
- meet MTSU GPA requirements; and
- complete the courses outlined in the degree program.

The program currently offers the following graduate online degrees:

- Master of Professional Studies
 - Professional Studies, Human Resources Leadership Concentration, M.P.S.
 - Professional Studies, Strategic Leadership Concentration, M.P.S.
 - Professional Studies, Training and Development Concentration, M.P.S.

Admissions, instruction, advising, library services, and other forms of student assistance are available online. The courses have been designed to be taught totally online in an interactive, asynchronous format. For questions, call 615-494-7714 or refer to www.mtsu.edu/university-college/advising/.

Synchronous Online Courses

Synchronous online courses are accessed over the Internet typically through MTSU's course management system. Synchronous online classes meet online at the time/days of the week specified in RaiderNet. A reliable computer with at minimum a DSL Internet (broadband) connection is needed to successfully access synchronous online course sessions. Hardware requirements include headphones, earbuds, speakers, and may include a microphone and/or web cam. During the class, students can hear and/or see the professor, and communication with the professor may take place through a microphone or text chat window. Only students with strong experience on the Internet should register for a synchronous online course. Courses may require proctored exams. Additional information may be obtained at Distance Course Definitions.

Accelerated Online Courses

Accelerated Online Courses are offered in two eight-week blocks each Fall and Spring semester. Students may take only up to 9 hours in each block (parts of term A1 and A2). Students may mix accelerated courses with full-term courses (not to exceed 18 hours total) and must register for A2 courses during regular registration. Special permission is required to add A2 part-of-term courses after late registration ends. Accelerated Online Courses may include optional orientations and proctored exams.

The University Studies department of the University College is committed to serving first-year students, transfer students, and adult students admitted to MTSU. The department's objective is to work with students to determine their ideal academic placement, to assist them in their transition to the University, and to provide academic support and instruction where appropriate. The overarching mission of the University Studies department is to provide a firm and stable foundation enabling students to confidently and persistently work towards achieving their goals. The department is able to achieve this mission with the support of dedicated faculty and staff committed to empowering students to fulfill their academic ambitions.

In addition, the University Studies department works with students electing a broad-based educational experience rather than a program designed to meet specific vocational or professional job opportunities. The department offers the Bachelor of Science in Integrated Studies with an option for a concentration in Applied Leadership and the Bachelor of Science in Professional Studies with options for concentrations in Health Administration, Information Technology, International Organizational Leadership, or Organizational Leadership. The flexibility in course requirements for these programs of study may be particularly attractive to students who have earned numerous prior credits that can be applied to a four-year degree, have military or other significant training experiences that may qualify for prior learning assessment, and/or may need to study online.

Additional information about the Integrated Studies and Professional Studies majors may be obtained from University Studies or mtsu.edu/university-college/university-studies/index.php.

University Seminar (UNIV 1010)

UNIV 1010 is a visible demonstration of the University's commitment to the academic success of entering first-year students. Designed to equip students to move successfully from first-year status to graduating seniors, the course specifically provides information to ease the transition to the University during the first semester on campus and facilitates the development of strategies leading to a successful college career.

UNIV 1010 is a three-hour elective course. It focuses on helping students enhance academic skills to meet university expectations, clarify their career goals, develop time and financial management skills, develop critical thinking and communication skills through the discussion of relevant topics, and become aware of numerous campus resources devoted to student success. Course sections are capped at 25 students to promote a sense of community and to provide a "home base" for students during their first year. Honors sections of the course are also offered.

Successful Transitions (UNIV 2020)

UNIV 2020 is a one-hour elective course designed to assist new transfer students in transitioning to the MTSU campus environment and provide information that will maximize students' chances for success while minimizing the time required to achieve their educational goals. Learning modules are constructed around success strategies, the identification of campus resources, the development of a clear path toward the attainment of career goals, and the identification of ways to be involved on campus. Class sections are also kept small to promote a sense of community.

Academic Assessment Placement Testing

All entering degree-seeking students less than 21 years of age will be assessed initially for prescribed course placement according to valid ACT/SAT scores. Permissible scores are less than five years old. Students with ACT scores lower than 19 in reading or math or lower than 18 in English are required to register in prescribed courses. Students with SAT mathematics scores or critical reading scores less than 460 prior to March 18, 2016 and after March 18, 2016 less than 500 in mathematics or reading or less than 490 in English will have the same requirement. Although they are not required to take the Academic Assessment Placement test, students are invited to verify their placement by taking the test prior to registration.

Applicants who will be 21 years of age or older at the time of admission have the option to take an academic assessment placement test, provide ACT/SAT scores that have been taken within five years, or be placed in the first level of the appropriate required prescribed courses. For these purposes, academic assessment includes (1) a test in writing; (2) a test in reading comprehension; and (3) a test in mathematics covering algebra skills. The assessment exam is administered at MTSU or in select remote locations. All test scheduling is managed through the University Studies department. Additionally, transfer students who have not earned college-level, algebra-based mathematics, reading intensive credit, or English composition credits have the option to take the academic assessment test or be placed in the first level of the appropriate prescribed area.

Students admitted as Adult Special who have not completed the first college-level course in English composition, a reading intensive course, or algebra-based mathematics may elect to take the Academic Assessment Placement Test or be placed at the first level of the appropriate prescribed subject area. Adult Special students must also enroll in the prescribed courses prior to enrolling in any course that has the needed prescribed course as a prerequisite.

Below is a list of the required courses for students who either test into or are being placed according to ACT/SAT scores. Please note if you are required to take READ 1000K you will also be required to take HIST 2020L concurrently. The K sections of University seminar UNIV 1010 have a special focus on academic skills and are required of any student who initially places into two subject areas. Students are encouraged to discuss their test scores and prescribed course placement with their assigned advisors.

- MATH 1010K - Mathematics for General Studies
- MATH 1530K - Applied Statistics

Academic Support

A number of support services provide tutoring to help students achieve the objectives in their courses. These are (1) the University Writing Center, (2) the Prescribed Course Reading Lab, and (3) the Prescribed Course Mathematics Lab. Free tutoring provided in the labs reinforces the curricula and objectives of the courses. In addition, advisors are available to assist students in all matters related to their academic standing. Each student is assigned an advisor who assists with scheduling and other concerns affecting academic success. Students should make appointments with their advisors before registration and should see their advisors at least twice during the semester.

Mandatory Enrollment

Students with prescribed course requirements must be continuously enrolled in the courses(s) until all have been successfully completed. Those failing a prescribed course must retake the course the next semester they enroll. They may not drop a prescribed course without the approval of the chair of University Studies. Students are expected to attend all class sessions. Strict attendance policies are in place. A student may not take any course that requires skill in any area in which deficiency has been determined by the assessment tool.

Grades

To successfully complete some prescribed courses, students must earn a grade of C- or better. The grade of D is not assigned for those courses. Prescribed courses carry elective credit or satisfy General Education requirements and are also used to compute the overall GPA.

The Bachelor of Science in Integrated Studies degree is an interdisciplinary degree program with instruction offered on the MTSU campus as well as online. This degree is extremely flexible and is an excellent option for students seeking a broad-based educational experience or wanting to custom-design a degree program. Those seeking this accelerated path to graduation choose two areas of emphasis (12 hours each) to meet personal and professional goals. Sample study subjects include child and family studies, communication studies, criminal justice, cultural studies, English or writing, health, human sciences, information technology, journalism or public relations, leadership studies, nutrition, office management, political science, psychology, sociology, teaching and learning, and women's studies.

Students who have accumulated a variety of course credits that are not easily applied to a particular degree program often find that they can be used in this program, allowing them to graduate earlier. Elective course requirements for adult learners are often fulfilled through the Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) program, which evaluates college-level learning gained through work, training, certifications, licensure, military, and other programs. Details about the program should be discussed with student's advisor.
