The College of Media and Entertainment provides professional education for individuals aspiring to careers in the fields of media arts (including photography), journalism, and the recording industry, as well as academic preparation for advanced studies. The college is dedicated to fostering an appreciation of the media's role in a democracy and developing better-informed citizens within the University community by providing theoretical foundations, professional skill sets, research, creative activity, experiential learning, and public service. Students are offered broad-based knowledge encompassing a global perspective and a professional ethos, as well as an affinity for free expression, critical thinking, and diversity of thought.

Programs
All curricular programs throughout the College of Media and Entertainment attempt to address a common, minimum set of core competencies. The current core competencies include

1. literacy and digital skills;
2. history, theory, and research appropriate to the area;
3. law, ethics, and policy appropriate to the area.

Grading Policy
The College of Media and Entertainment participates in the plus/minus (±) grading system. Majors must complete all major course requirements with a grade of C (2.00) or better. Thus, in order to earn a grade of P in a pass/fail course, the student must earn the equivalent of a grade of C (2.00) or better.

Candidacy Program
The College of Media and Entertainment includes a candidacy program for some majors in the college. (See program pages.) This program is based on research indicating a relationship between completion of certain required classes with certain minimum grade point expectations and both performance and retention in the major. In addition, the requirements specified in the candidacy program are consistent with requirements of our national accrediting agency.
Media and Entertainment, Interdisciplinary Media, B.S.
An interdisciplinary concentration across the College of Media and Entertainment, the Interdisciplinary Media concentration uses the college core and then provides students with options across the college in history, writing, technology, aesthetics, and digital literacy. Students choose an area of emphasis that reflects their professional interests.

University Media
Students are urged to become involved with the various campus media because they offer excellent opportunities for practical experience. These include the student publication Sidelines, the student newspaper, and the student record label Match Records.
Two radio stations and a community cable television channel provide opportunities for students to gain experience and knowledge about the mass media and communications:
- WMOT, the University's National Public Radio affiliate, is a professionally managed public service radio station featuring American music, news, and information programming. Located at 89.5 on the FM dial, WMOT-FM also provides enrichment opportunities for selected students majoring in Media and Entertainment.
- WMTS is a student-operated alternative radio station, located at 88.3 on the FM dial, which carries an eclectic mix of music, news, and student information.
- MT10, the University student-operated cable channel, carries sports, news, instructional, and entertainment programming.
Following are the curricula, courses, and specific requirements for majors and minors in each department or school.

The School of Journalism and Strategic Media offers coursework leading to the Bachelor of Science with a major in Journalism and concentrations in Advertising-Public Relations, Media Studies, Sports Media, and Visual Communication. Classes are designed to develop three important skill areas for all students: writing, digital skills, and critical thinking. A total of 47 hours of coursework is required for most majors in the School of Journalism and Strategic Media. A minimum of 72 hours must be taken outside the School of Journalism and Strategic Media. Students majoring in Journalism should pursue minors outside the School of Journalism and Strategic Media. Students outside the school may choose the following minors in the School of Journalism and Strategic Media: Journalism, Advertising, Public Relations, Sports Media, and Visual Communication. Transfer credit of up to 12 semester hours toward the major or minor is allowed after careful review of catalog course descriptions. The School of Journalism and Strategic Media will not normally grant transfer credit for courses taken at institutions not accredited by the Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications.

Journalism, Media Studies Concentration, B.S.

Journalism and Strategic Media
615-898-2814
Katie Foss, program coordinator
Katie.Foss@mtsu.edu

The Journalism major with a Media Studies concentration is designed for students who enjoy discussing, analyzing, and writing about film, television, advertising, and other media. In this concentration, students think about the interplay between media and society, exploring the messages in historical and contemporary media content, as well as examining how and why media influence audience perception and behavior.

Students should check the prerequisites for each course.

Chris Bacon, program coordinator
Chris.Bacon@mtsu.edu
The Sports Media concentration offers students from all majors an opportunity to gain additional exposure in the sports industry and its impact on society. This emphasis can be beneficial for students who wish to pursue sports careers in print/online media, public relations, promotions, marketing communications, and broadcast journalism. Students should check the prerequisites for each course.

Media Arts

Billy Pittard, Chair
Bowen, Chilsen, Elliott, Gomez, Gordon, Griswold, Heinrich, Kalwinsky, Lewis, McNulty, Neff, O'Neill, Potter, Randol, Sultan, Trundle

The Department of Media Arts provides students with hands-on opportunities to learn by doing, and reinforces this with a foundation of history and theory in each field taught. Students are provided opportunities to develop their individually unique skills, strengths, and interests to become competent and competitive in their chosen career paths. Faculty in the department nurture a culture of collaboration and creativity and believe that understanding and imagination are the key elements of successful and rewarding careers in media and entertainment industries.

Media Arts offers the following programs of study:

- Animation, B.S.
- Interactive Media, B.S.
- Photography, B.S.
- Media Management, B.S.
- Video and Film Production, B.S.
- Video and Film Production, Filmmaking Concentration, B.S.
- Video and Film Production, Live Production Concentration, B.S.

Each of these programs is also offered as a minor.

Media Arts strives to provide hands-on learning experiences whenever possible. Facilities (www.mtsu.edu/mediaarts/facilities.php) include an equipment checkout system for students with a variety of cameras and field production equipment; a 40-foot mobile television production lab; two production studios including a 3,000 square foot TV/film studio; video editing facilities; three high-end animation labs with a render farm; an interactive media lab with virtual and augmented reality facilities; a foley lab; traditional and digital photography facilities, two photographic studios, a student photo gallery; a student-run TV station; and a student-run FM radio station. The Baldwin Photographic Gallery resides in the department and exhibits the works of renowned photographers, students, and faculty.

The department offers a variety of cocurricular opportunities (www.mtsu.edu/mediaarts/organizations.php) for all of its students including industry-specific student organizations that make films, produce television programs, make animation, compete in eSports, experiment with VR/AR, go on photo safaris, networking events, and more. The department also offers a unique varsity team for live television production whose work is frequently distributed nationwide.

Each of the Media Arts programs requires admission to candidacy upon completion of 45 semester hours of university-level coursework. Specific requirements are listed by program. Many of the department's upper-division courses require admission to Media Arts candidacy to enroll.

Transfer Credit

The Department of Media Arts will accept no more than 12 semester hours of transfer credit toward either a major and/or minor in the department. This is a maximum number of credits that will be accepted and does not constitute a guarantee that each student desiring to transfer up to 12 semester hours into the program will be granted credit for all transfer hours. Each case will be judged on an individual basis.

Transfer credit will normally be granted for theory/concept/media-history courses such as American Media and Social Institutions. Other courses that will normally be accepted include survey courses such as introduction to mass communication.

On a case-by-case basis, a production course may be accepted as an elective if the student earned a B or better in the course. Also on a case-by-case basis, requests for substitution of a required course may be accepted if there is clear evidence that the transferred course is equivalent to the required course.

Further information on departmental procedures for awarding transfer credit is available from the department.
Honors College

The Department of Media Arts periodically offers the following courses in Honors:

- EMC 1020 - American Media and Social Institutions
- EMC 2120 - Sight, Sound, and Motion
- EMC 4250 - Mass Media Law
- EMC 4800 - Seminar in Media Issues
- VFP 2410 - History of American Television

See Honors College for more information.

The Animation major is designed for those who wish to work professionally in animation and/or imaging, including character animation, video games, motion graphics, visual effects, simulation and visualization, and image manipulation. This program blends theoretical and hands-on approaches to traditional and digital animation. Students are encouraged to complete their education with internships in professional settings.

In addition to supplemental classes, students take a six-semester sequence of courses (fall and spring) focused in 3D animation. The final two semesters of the six-semester sequence culminate in a two-semester capstone experience in which each student creates a project of their own design or with a team to serve as a primary item in their creative portfolios.

The major requires a minor in Art as described below.

Notice to Transfer Students: MTSU's Animation degree program is designed as a four-year, eight-semester program. Most of the courses must be taken in a strict sequence. To graduate in four years, students must follow the prescribed sequence of classes described below. ART 1610 - Two-Dimensional Design, ART 1620 - Drawing I, and PHOT 1050 - Basic Digital Photography and Imaging must be completed in the Freshman year. Even with transferring those credits, the student may be excessively burdened with animation classes the first semester sophomore year. ANIM 2300 - Introduction to 3D Animation must be taken no later than the first semester of the sophomore year. Transferring to MTSU's Animation program later than the first semester of the Sophomore year will definitely require extra semesters to complete the program. Contact an MTSU academic advisor for more information.

NOTE: Majors must complete all major course requirements with a grade of C (2.00) or better.

Admission to Candidacy

To be admitted to candidacy in Animation, the student must meet the following requirements:

1. 45 hours completed before applying for candidacy
2. Passing grade in EMC 1010
3. Grade of C (2.00) or better in each of the following pre-candidacy courses:
   - ART 1610
   - ART 1620
   - ANIM 1300
   - ANIM 2300
   - ANIM 3040/VFP 3040
   - PHOT 1050/EMC 1050
   Minimum overall GPA in pre-candidacy coursework of 2.50.
3. In addition to the above requirements, candidacy will be granted to students earning a score of 90 or better on the Animation Candidacy Evaluation. A limited number of additional students may be granted candidacy based upon candidacy score and available resources.
4. Animation Candidacy Evaluation uses a 100-point scale composed of 60 percent portfolio review and 40 percent grade point average (GPA) on required pre-candidacy courses.
   a. The student's portfolio may be composed of work from classes and personal projects. Portfolios will be scored on a 60-point scale. Suggested work samples include
      1. traditional art such as drawing, painting, sculpture, photography, graphic design, etc.,
      2. still digital art,
      3. animation of any form or format,
      4. other creative work to demonstrate the student's creative and aesthetic competency as it applies to the fields of Animation.
   b. The student's GPA for required pre-candidacy courses will be multiplied by 10 for a maximum score of 40 points.

The Interactive Media program focuses on interactive and new media content. This interdisciplinary program combines the use of text, images, video, sound, graphics, and interactivity to communicate through a variety of ever-changing digital platforms such as social media, apps, virtual and augmented reality, and games. The curriculum includes content creation, strategy, measurement, and management in a blend of theoretical and hands-on approaches. The curriculum culminates with a senior capstone course and an internship in a professional setting.

NOTE: Majors must complete all major course requirements with a grade of C (2.00) or better.

Admission to Candidacy

To be admitted to candidacy in the Interactive Media program, the student must meet the following requirements:

1. 45 hours completed before applying for candidacy
2. Passing grade for EMC 1010
3. Grade of B (3.00) or better in each of the following:
   EMC 1020/RIM 1020/JOUR 1020

The Media Management degree offers preparation for work in behind-the-scenes areas of media operations such as broadcasting, distribution, network operations, production, management, marketing, and sales. The program builds upon a foundation of media history and theory with practical studies and experiences in media business. The curriculum presents a combination of media-specific courses and basic business courses, along with media aesthetics, creative production, and current practices in digital media. Senior students are challenged to manage an aspect of an actual media operation in the senior capstone course and to prepare a case study of those experiences to enhance their learning and serve as portfolio pieces to help launch their careers.

Media Management is a good fit for students who like being involved with media production but prefer the organizational, management, or business aspects of the work. Primary career paths include media management, media marketing, media production, media operations, and media sales to name a few. There are media management positions in every organization that deals with media.

NOTE: Majors must complete all major course requirements with a grade of C (2.00) or better.

Accelerated Bachelors/Masters (ABM) Program
High achieving students majoring in Media and Entertainment who intend to pursue a master’s degree in Media and Communication may apply to participate in the Accelerated Bachelors/Masters (ABM) pathway. The pathway allows undergraduate students an opportunity to complete select requirements for both the bachelor's and master's degrees simultaneously. Students admitted to an ABM pathway must meet all pathway requirements to be admitted to the graduate program. Upon completion of the ABM pathway, the student must apply and be accepted for admission to the graduate program. For more information about the ABM pathway, see the Graduate Catalog. NOTE: Applications for this ABM pathway are no longer being accepted. Current ABM students may complete the pathway in place at the time of application.

Admission to Candidacy
To be admitted to candidacy in the Media Management program, the student must meet the following requirements:
1. 45 hours completed before applying for candidacy
2. Passing grade for EMC 1010
3. Grade of B- (2.67) or better in each of the following:
   EMC 1020/JOUR 1020/RIM 1020
   VFP 2020, IAM 3060, or JOUR 2710
   VFP 2410
   EMC 2120

The Photography program combines aesthetic and technical skills with a foundation of photographic theory and history to prepare students for careers in commercial photography, creative/artistic photography, and documentary photography.

The Photography program is housed in a modern freestanding building with secured, ID card swipe access for students. Facilities include two digital classrooms with camera obscuras, a digital lab with scanners and printers, a spacious studio with an infinity wall (cyclorama), a large tabletop studio, two traditional darkrooms with enlargers and sinks, an alternative process darkroom, and a student photo gallery.

The Photography program is home of the Baldwin Photographic Gallery, known for its exhibits of works by many of the world's most renowned photographers. The Baldwin Photographic Collection and Archive which contains numerous masterpieces of photography are also managed by the Photography program.

Students are encouraged to participate in the MTSU Photo Society, a student organization that conducts photo workshops, photo safaris, and other photo-related activities.

NOTE: Majors must complete all major course requirements with a grade of C (2.00) or better.

Accelerated Bachelors/Masters (ABM) Program

High achieving students majoring in Media and Entertainment who intend to pursue a master's degree in Media and Communication may apply to participate in the Accelerated Bachelors/Masters (ABM) Program. The pathway allows undergraduate students an opportunity to complete select requirements for both the bachelor's and master's degrees simultaneously. Students admitted to an ABM pathway must meet all pathway requirements to be admitted to the graduate program. Upon completion of the ABM pathway, the student must apply and be accepted for admission to the graduate program. For more information about the ABM pathway, see the Graduate Catalog. NOTE: Applications for this ABM pathway are no longer being accepted. Current ABM students may complete the pathway in place at the time of application.

Admission to Candidacy

To be admitted to candidacy in the Photography concentration, the student must meet the following requirements:

1. 45 hours completed before applying for candidacy
2. Passing grade in EMC 1010

The Video and Film Production program offers a combination of filmmaking, video production, and live production. Students are able to specialize in these aspects by their choices of required course options. The program builds upon a blend of theoretical and hands-on approaches to media production.

The Video and Film Production program emphasizes hands-on learning experiences whenever possible. Facilities include an equipment checkout system for students with a variety of cameras and on-location production equipment; a 40-foot mobile television production lab that averages about 40 live productions per semester; video editing facilities; two production studios including a 3,000 square foot TV/film studio; a Foley lab; large-scale LED wall facilities; and 360-degree virtual reality facilities.

The program also offers substantial cocurricular opportunities for its students. This includes several organizations focused on making films, a student run television station where students produce the programming and manage the station, and a unique varsity team for live television production whose work is frequently distributed nationwide. These opportunities are available to students from their first semester onward.

Video and Film Production students are able to build upon their unique talents and interests by combining this major with related minors such as Animation, Audio Production, Interactive Media, Film Studies, Writing, and others.

NOTE: Students must complete all major course requirements with a grade of C (2.00) or better.

Admission to Candidacy

To be admitted to candidacy in the Video and Film Production program, the student must meet the following requirements:

1. 45 hours completed before applying for candidacy

   - VFP 1080
   - VFP 2020
   - VFP 2130 or VFP 2131 (NOTE: VFP 1080 is a prerequisite for VFP 2130.)
   - EMC 2120
4. Grade of C (2.00) or better in each of the following:
   - EMC 1020/JOUR 1020/RIM 1020
   - ENGL 1010 and ENGL 1020
   - Math course satisfying General Education requirements.

Video and Film Production, Filmmaking Concentration, B.S.

Media Arts

Paul Chilsen, program coordinator
Paul.Chilsen@mtsu.edu

The Filmmaking concentration in the Video and Film Production program provides students with the knowledge and skills needed to be successful in the art, craft, and business of filmmaking. No longer the exclusive domain of Hollywood studios, every modern organization needs filmmakers who have the skills to influence, inform, inspire, or entertain. MTSU Film students learn the art of cinematic storytelling and how to apply those skills to any genre. Finished products include an almost infinite variety of forms and uses including theatrical films, documentaries, television, music videos, commercials, web content, and instructional films. There's something for everyone in Filmmaking. Whether it's a leading or supporting position, MTSU's film students are able to experience a variety of roles and customize their curriculum to find their personal fit.

Facilities include a large stock of professional-quality field production gear available for student check out, post production labs and suites, foley and audio facilities, and a large sound stage. There are also internship opportunities, a semester abroad program, and a summer term in Los Angeles. The program builds on a solid foundation of film theory and history, while providing practical, hands-on learning opportunities from day one to graduation. The Filmmaking capstone challenges seniors to produce culminating projects that demonstrate not only their skills and knowledge, but also showcase the type of work they wish to pursue after graduation. It's the perfect opportunity to create a powerful portfolio piece to launch a career.

MTSU's Filmmaking program offers substantial cocurricular opportunities as well. This includes several student organizations that create film and television and a student-run TV station where students produce the programming and manage the station. These are available to students from their first semester onward, offering unique opportunities to connect and flourish.

Filmmaking is a good fit for students who like to work with media to tell stories. It is also good for those who like to collaborate in teams of experts. Primary career paths include screenwriting, cinematography, editing/postproduction, directing, and producing; however, there are many others. Filmmaking has specialized applications in virtually every industry.

NOTE: Students must complete all major course requirements with a grade of C (2.00) or better.

Video and Film Production, Live Production Concentration, B.S.

Media Arts

Robert Gordon, program coordinator
Robert.Gordon@mtsu.edu

The Live Production concentration in Video and Film Production provides students with the knowledge and skills needed to be successful in the live television production industry. Live production is the process of broadcasting, recording, or projecting a live event or performance with multiple video cameras. Finished products include an almost infinite variety of forms such as television coverage of live sports, awards shows, recorded multi-camera productions such as music concerts/festivals, dance theater, game shows, cooking shows, talk shows, and Image MAGnification (IMAG) projection of live presentations or performances at venue-based events such as concerts and other large events. Live production also covers media design, rigging, and technology aspects of the concert touring industry.

This program is a good fit for students who like to collaborate in teams of experts in the media production industry. Primary career paths include creative, technical, and managerial positions. The industry is fast-paced, deadline-oriented, constantly changing, and somewhat glamorous.

The program has 30 years of experience with live sports production. In a typical semester, this program produces over two dozen live sports broadcasts with all student crews--many of which are aired nationwide on ESPN and other channels. Twice in the last six years, students in the program have been recognized for the best student-produced sports broadcast in the nation by a sports industry trade association. This program also produces a variety of in-studio and on-location music concerts, dance, and theatrical events and other live, special-events. Productions with Grammy-winning music artists, The Nashville Symphony, and Bonnaroo are regular class projects.

The program emphasizes hands-on learning experiences whenever possible. Facilities include a 40-foot mobile television production lab; two production studios including a 3,000 square foot TV studio; an equipment checkout system for students with a variety of on-location production equipment; video editing facilities; a Foley lab; and 360-degree virtual reality facilities. The program is one of the only college programs in the world where students learn to do hands-on work with large-scale LED video walls.

The Live Production program offers substantial cocurricular opportunities for its students. This includes a student-staffed production company that produces, manages, and crews live television broadcasts; and a student-run television station where students produce the programming and manage the station. These opportunities are available to students from their first semester onward.

Live Production students are able to build upon their unique talents and interests by combining this major with related minors such as Animation, Audio Production, Interactive Media, Media Management, and others.

NOTE: Students must complete all major course requirements with a grade of C (2.00) or better.

(Same as VFP 3040.) Prerequisites: EMC 1050/PHOT 1050 with minimum grade of C or permission of instructor. Aesthetics, principles, and processes of designing motion graphics for video production, broadcast television, film, and the Internet. Emphasizes freedom of expression while respecting diversity of media audiences. Three-hour lecture plus up to three-hour lab per week.

ANIM 3310 - Texturing, Lighting, and Rendering
3 credit hours
All candidacy courses with grade of C or better; Animation majors/minors only; others permission of instructor. Continuation of ANIM 2300 for the development of three-dimensional computer graphics and animation. Further understanding of aesthetics and techniques for building, lighting, texturing, and rendering of three-dimensional models to be used in designing and producing three-dimensional computer-generated animations. Introduces the creation and modification of customized lighting models and techniques involved in the compositing of live-action, sound, and computer-generated images. Three-hour lecture plus up to three-hour lab per week.

ANIM 3320 - Introduction to Digital Compositing
3 credit hours
Prerequisites: VFP 1060 or VFP 2130 with minimum grade of C and admission to candidacy (Same as VFP 3320.) History, techniques, and applications of compositing in the areas of film, video, and multimedia production. Broad survey of process and techniques involved with creating composites. Techniques and aesthetics incorporated into traditional methods of compositing for contrast and comparison. Frequent review and discussion of current work from industry will occur in the form of media presentations. Three-hour lecture plus up to three-hour lab per week.

ANIM 3330 - Animation and Rigging
3 credit hours
Prerequisite: ANIM 3310; admission to candidacy or permission of instructor.
The development of three-dimensional computer graphics and animation. Further understanding of the aesthetics and techniques for organic modeling, rigging, and animation. Offers greater understanding of complete animation production, principles, and methods. Three-hour lecture plus up to three-hour lab per week.

Formerly ANIM 4300

ANIM 4040 - Motion Graphics II
3 credit hours
(Same as VFP 4040.) Prerequisites: ANIM 3040/VFP 3040 and ANIM 3320/VFP 3320 with minimum grade of C or permission of instructor.
Aesthetics, advanced principles, and processes of designing motion graphics for video production, broadcast television, film, and the Internet.
Emphasizes freedom of expression while respecting diversity of media audiences.
Three-hour lecture plus up to three-hour lab per week.

ANIM 4310 - Animation and Performance
3 credit hours
Prerequisites: ANIM 3310 and ANIM 3330 with C or better; admission to candidacy
Continuation of ANIM 3330 for the development of three-dimensional computer graphics and animation. Further understanding of the aesthetics and techniques for creating animation for film, television, games, motion graphics, and VFX. Serves as additional preparation for the required senior capstone courses and offers greater understanding of advanced character animation production, organic modeling, and rigging.
Three-hour lecture plus up to three-hour lab per week.

ANIM 4400 - Animation Capstone I
3 to 4 credit hours
Prerequisites: Senior standing; ANIM 3040, ANIM 3320, and ANIM 4310 with C or better; corequisite: ANIM 4405.
Part one of two senior capstone courses for animation students. Students will create an original animated short film from concept to production. Emphasis placed on story.
Three-hour lecture plus up to three-hour lab per week.

ANIM 4405 - Professional Practices in Animation
2 credit hours
Prerequisite: ANIM 4310; corequisite: ANIM 4400.
Focuses on preparing Animation majors for the real world job market. Students create marketing materials to help sell themselves to prospective employers.

Additional lectures and discussions on soft skills, career planning, and job hunting also included.

ANIM 4410 - Animation Capstone II

Introduces theories of adoption, emergence, and disruption of digital technologies in global cultures.

IAM 3610 - Fundamentals of Game Theory and Design
3 credit hours
Prerequisite: Junior standing or permission of department.
Introduces game theory to students with diverse academic backgrounds. Focuses on the basics of game theory from strategic reasoning to sequential games and turn taking. Students required to design and build a basic mobile game.

IAM 3850 - Online Strategy and Search Engine Optimization
3 credit hours
Prerequisite: IAM 3065 or permission of department. An overview of online strategies such as search engine optimization and web analytics.

IAM 3950 - Content Strategy and Management
3 credit hours
Prerequisite: IAM 3065; candidacy in Interactive Media.
Introduces the concepts of content strategy; the creation, delivery, and governance of useful, usable content; and provides practical experience in implementing a content strategy with database enabled content management systems.

IAM 4350 - User Experience Fundamentals
3 credit hours
Prerequisite: Junior standing or permission of department.
Explores facets of the user experience discipline: interaction design, user research, usability, navigation, and information architecture. Students apply theory and skills from the class in real world projects developing apps or websites for small businesses or non-profits or as entrepreneurial ventures.

IAM 4450 - Understanding Digital Analytics
3 credit hours
Prerequisite: Junior standing or permission of department.
Introduces the measurement and analysis of traffic, engagement, and other parameters of online, mobile, emergent communication, and entertainment technology. Students will work with real world clients to analyze current digital media traffic trends and create measurement strategies and tactics. Students may earn applicable certifications as available as part of their coursework.

IAM 4460 - Interactive Media Capstone
3 credit hours
Prerequisites: Candidacy in Interactive Media. Solving communication problems through digital communication applications. Students use skills and concepts and apply them in the creation of a capstone project of their own design. Involves working with outside clients, forming media companies, and the production of mediated materials within a production company model. Three-hour lecture plus up to three-hour lab per week. Spring only

IAM 4800 - Seminar in Media Issues
3 credit hours
Prerequisite: Interactive Media candidacy or permission of department. Examination and critical evaluation of issues relevant to interactive media including their relationships to each other and to government, advertisers, consumers, and other "publics."

Akins, Alleyne, Baird, Barnet, Blackmon, Brown, Collier, Conceison, Crabtree, Dahan, deClercq, Dellinger, Donham, Dougan, Fleming, Foglia, Green, Hanson, Hill, Jones, Keel, Macy, Nichols, O'Brien, Ouellette, Paulson, Pfeifer, Piekarski, Rowland, Wagnon, Wald

The Department of Recording Industry is internationally known for its innovative programs of study. The purpose of these programs is to prepare students for positions in virtually any phase of the audio production and music industries, to be entrepreneurs, or for postgraduate study. The department offers a Bachelor of Science degree in Recording Industry with concentrations in Music Business and Commercial Songwriting and a Bachelor of Science in Audio Production.

Internships with a variety of companies and organizations in the industry are available for selected students. Opportunities to meet industry professionals, network, and develop contacts are provided throughout each semester. The department offers study abroad programs in several countries. Audio engineering and production courses are taught in multiple studios and labs, all located on campus. Live sound/sound reinforcement courses are taught in various on-campus locations. Music Business students have access to modern marketing software and the most current industry data. Students in Commercial Songwriting work with professional songwriters.

The program is designed with advice from The Recording Academy, the National Association of Recording Merchandisers, the Society of Professional Audio Recording Services, and numerous industry professionals and executives.

The department offers a minor in Recording Industry for Music majors in the Music Industry concentration and other interested students, a minor in Entertainment Technology in cooperation with the Departments of Theatre and Dance and Media Arts, and a minor in Audio Production.

Transfer Credit Policy
Transfer credit into the Recording Industry major and minor will be accepted for the following core courses, lower-division courses, and non-RIM courses only: RIM 1020, RIM 1230, RIM 3000, RIM 3010, RIM 3600, RIM 3700, RIM 4700, PHYS 1600, MUHL 3670, PS 3530, ENGL 3810, and JOUR 2710. Only 3 hours of transfer credit may be counted toward the major from among PHYS 1600, MUHL 3670, PS 3530, ENGL 3810, and JOUR 2710. For students transferring from an institution that does not have an articulation agreement with MTSU, a course content evaluation and transfer validation test may be required before acceptance of the transfer of any RIM courses.

NOTE 1: Students who take and pass MUTH 1110 - Theory and Aural Skills I at MTSU with a C- or better and who are minoring in any Music minor are exempt from RIM 1230 - Musicianship for Engineers but must take an additional 3 hours from the prescribed list of major electives.

NOTE 2: Students who take and pass MUTH 1110 - Theory and Aural Skills I at MTSU with a C- or better and who are not minoring in any Music minor can have MUTH 1110 substituted for RIM 1230 - Musicianship for Engineers and receive 4 hours credit toward the RI major.

NOTE 3: Students who take and pass a college-level Music Theory I course at another institution and who are minoring in any Music minor must take and pass the Music Theory and Aural Skills Diagnostic Exam offered by the School of Music. Those who pass will have the requirement for RIM 1230 - Musicianship for Engineers waived but must take an additional 3 hours from the prescribed list of major electives. Students who do not pass the Music Theory and Aural Skills Diagnostic Exam must take MUTH 1000 - Elements of Music or RIM 1230 - Musicianship for Engineers before taking MUTH 1110.

NOTE 4: Students who take and pass a college-level music theory course at another institution with a C- or better and who are not minoring in any Music minor can have that course substituted for RIM 1230 - Musicianship for Engineers and receive 3 or 4 hours credit toward the Recording Industry major.

Grading Policy
Students majoring in Recording Industry must receive grades of C (2.00) or better in all Recording Industry courses in order for them to count toward the major. A minimum grade of C (2.00) is required in all classes that are prerequisite to Recording Industry classes. (A grade of C- is not considered C or better.) Recording Industry majors may be required to take an exit examination in order to graduate.

NOTE: Students who fail to attend the first class meeting of any RIM course without prior arrangement with the instructor may lose their places in class and those spaces will be made available to other students. This includes labs.

Accelerated Bachelor's to Master's Program

Qualified students pursuing an undergraduate degree in Recording Industry may take up to 12 credit hours of coursework in the M.F.A. in Recording Arts and Technologies program. These credits (up to 12) may be applied to both the B.S. in Recording Industry or B.S. in Audio Production and the M.F.A. in Recording Arts and Technologies degrees. To apply, see the M.F.A. program director. NOTE: Applications for this ABM pathway are no longer being accepted. Current ABM students may complete the pathway in place at the time of application.

Graduate Study

The department offers the Master of Fine Arts degree in Recording Arts and Technology. Requirements for this degree and a list of the courses offered for graduate credit are published in the Graduate Catalog.
Audio Production Minor
Recording Industry
Advisor: Matt Foglia
Matt.Foglia@mtsu.edu

The Audio Production minor requires 15 hours. It is suited for majors in Music Business, Commercial Songwriting, Media Arts, Music (Music Industry), and Technical Theatre. It is open to all majors pending approval. Students must maintain a 2.00 average in the Audio Production minor.

See course suggestions for studio production and engineering (music), electronic music (EM), sound reinforcement (live sound), and sound for picture tracks.

Required Courses (6 hours)
- RIM 3010 - Audio Fundamentals 3 credit hours *
- RIM 3300 - Digital Audio Technology 3 credit hours

*NOTE: RIM 3010 is required in the Music Business and Commercial Songwriting concentrations and cannot count in both the major and minor. Music Business and Commercial Songwriting majors will need to take an additional minor elective to earn 15 hours in the minor. (12 hours of minor electives instead of 9.)

*RIM 3011 Survey of Audio Technology cannot substitute for RIM 3010 and cannot count in the Audio Production minor or major.

Electives (9 hours)
All courses require the stated prerequisites and/or approvals by the AP minor advisor.

- RIM 1230 - Commercial Musicianship 3 credit hours *
- RIM 3450 - Advanced Commercial Musicianship 3 credit hours **
- RIM 4100 - Audio Signals and Systems 3 credit hours
- RIM 4190 - Introduction to MIDI and Sound Synthesis 3 credit hours
- RIM 4210 - Desktop Music Production 3 credit hours
- RIM 4330 - Sound Reinforcement 3 credit hours
- RIM 4400 - Recording Studio Techniques 3 credit hours
- RIM 4440 - Critical Listening 3 credit hours
- RIM 4480 - Mastering 3 credit hours
- RIM 4570 - The Art of Soundtrack Design 3 credit hours
- RIM 4575 - Sound Effects Design for Picture 3 credit hours
- RIM 4580 - Sound for Picture 3 credit hours
- RIM 4740 - Independent Contracting: Pro Audio Freelance 3 credit hours
- RIM 4830 - Recording Studio Maintenance 3 credit hours

NOTES:
* RIM 1230 Commercial Musicianship can be taken as an elective by the Music Business and Commercial Songwriting concentrations, but cannot count in both the concentration and minor.
* Students who have taken MUTH 1110 Theory and Aural Skills I cannot count RIM 1230 in the AP minor.
 Students who have taken MUTH 1120 Theory and Aural Skills II or a more advanced music theory class cannot count RIM 3450 in the AP minor.
 RIM 4210 Desktop Music Production cannot substitute for RIM 3300 in the AP minor or major.

The Audio Production major offers instruction and depth across multiple areas of audio including music recording and mixing, mastering, electronic music production, sound reinforcement (live sound), sound for picture (TV, film, etc.), and broadcast.

Accelerated Bachelors/Masters (ABM) Program
High achieving students majoring in Audio Production who intend to pursue a master's degree in Recording Arts and Technologies may apply to participate in the Accelerated Bachelors/Masters (ABM) pathway. The pathway allows undergraduate students an opportunity to complete select requirements for both the bachelor's and master's degrees simultaneously. Upon successful completion of the ABM Pathway, students must submit an application (including application fee) to the graduate program. Additional application requirements will be waived, and the student will be admitted to the program automatically. For more information about the ABM pathway, see the Graduate Catalog.

Admission to Candidacy
All students are required to be admitted to candidacy to earn a degree as an Audio Production major. Candidacy is required as a prerequisite to enrollment in most upper-division courses within the college.

To be eligible to apply for candidacy, a student must
1. complete all learning support requirements;
2. complete all high school deficiencies;
3. complete 24 total credit hours;
4. have completed at least one general education natural science requirement (Physics suggested);
5. receive at least a C (not a C-) in College Algebra or higher-level math;
6. receive at least a C (not a C-) in RIM 1230 or MUTH 1110;
7. complete RIM 3010, RIM 3300, and RIM 3600 with a C (not a C-);
8. be in good academic standing (not on probation).

Audio Production Candidacy GPA: Take the average of (AP pre-candidacy course GPA) and (Inclusive GPA) to calculate your Audio Production Candidacy GPA.

AP pre-candidacy course GPA: Calculated by taking the average of: RIM 3010, RIM 3300, and RIM 3600.

Inclusive GPA: Calculating the average of all classes that have a grade including those transferred.

Students in the Audio Production major are guaranteed admission to candidacy if they earn an Audio Production Candidacy GPA of 3.5 or higher.

A limited number of additional candidacy slots will be open based on availability. Candidacy will be granted three times per year; after the fall and spring semesters and summer term. Students may not take other RIM courses beyond the candidacy requirements, with the exception of RIM 3650, until they have successfully completed admission to candidacy.

The application for admission to candidacy is an online application available here. Applications should be submitted by students during the semester in which they will have completed the above requirements. The deadline for candidacy applications is near the end of each semester and is announced via email each semester.

Candidacy Appeals
A few of any available slots will be awarded based on a faculty committee recommendation on an appeal application. Appeal applications will be accepted after formula slots have been announced early in the Fall and Spring Semester and Summer Term. Appeal recommendations will be based on exceptional circumstances and/or exceptional talent and/or diversity considerations.
Technology Requirements
Students in the Audio Production program are required to have a computer and Avid Pro Tools software. Specific information can be found:

The Commercial Songwriting concentration offers instruction designed for students who are interested in careers in the music industry such as arranger, artist, musician, producer, singer, or songwriter.

Admission to Candidacy
All students are required to be admitted to candidacy to earn a degree as a Recording Industry major. Candidacy is required as a prerequisite to enrollment in most upper-division courses within the college. When applying to candidacy, students choose their concentration: Commercial Songwriting or Music Business.

To apply for candidacy, a student must have
1. completed all learning support requirements;
2. completed all high school deficiencies;
3. completed 24 hours (not to include learning support courses);
4. completed the math requirement (College Algebra or higher level math) with a minimum 2.00 (C) grade;
5. completed all candidacy courses with a minimum 2.00 (C) grade in each: JOUR 1020/EMC 1020/RIM 1020; RIM 3000; RIM 3010 or RIM 3011*; RIM 3600);
6. maintained good standing (not on probation).

*NOTE: RIM 3010 is required for Audio Production students and to take many Audio Production related electives Students in the Commercial Songwriting concentration are guaranteed admission to candidacy if they earn a Candidacy Formula score of 35.5 or better. A limited number of additional candidacy slots will be open based on availability. Candidacy will be granted three times per year-after the fall and spring semesters and summer term. Students may not take other RIM courses beyond the candidacy requirements, with the exception of RIM 1230, RIM 3115/3116, and RIM 3650, until they have successfully completed admission to candidacy. The application for admission to candidacy is an online application available here. Applications should be submitted by students during the semester in which they will have completed the above requirements. The deadline for candidacy applications is near the end of each semester and is announced via email each semester.

Candidacy Formula
Each student's candidacy score is derived from the following:
Score = (inclusive GPA x 3) + (math grade x 3) + (candidacy course GPA x 4) + (total hours x .05).

Candidacy Appeals
A few of any available slots in the concentration will be awarded based on a faculty committee recommendation on an appeal application. Appeal applications will be accepted after formula slots have been announced early in the Fall and Spring Semester and Summer Term. Appeal recommendations will be based on exceptional circumstances and/or exceptional talent and/or diversity considerations.

*NOTE: RIM 3010 is required for Audio Production students and to take many Audio Production related electives

Students in the Music Business concentration are guaranteed admission to candidacy if they earn a Candidacy Formula score of 35.5 or better. A limited number of additional candidacy slots will be open based on availability. Candidacy will be granted three times per year-after the fall and spring semesters and summer term. Students may not take other RIM courses beyond the candidacy requirements, with the exception of RIM 1230 and RIM 3650, until they have successfully completed admission to candidacy.

The application for admission to candidacy is an online application available here. Applications should be submitted by students during the semester in which they will have completed the above requirements. The deadline for candidacy applications is near the end of each semester and is announced via email each semester.

Candidacy Formula

Each student's candidacy score is derived from the following:

Score = (inclusive GPA x 3) + (math grade x 3) + (candidacy course GPA x 4) + (total hours x .05).

Candidacy Appeals

A few of any available slots in the concentration will be awarded based on a faculty committee recommendation on an appeal application. Appeal applications will be accepted after formula slots have been announced early in the Fall and Spring Semester and Summer Term. Appeal recommendations will be based on exceptional circumstances and/or exceptional talent and/or diversity considerations.

3 credit hours (Same as EMC 1020/JOUR 1020.)
The power of the mass media and its effect on social institutions and practices. Develops skills of qualitative and quantitative social science research in the area of mass communication processes; examines media as social, cultural, and economic institutions that shape the values of American society, its political dialogues, its social practices, and institutions.

RIM 1230 - Commercial Musicianship
3 credit hours
A variety of music subjects explored within the context of commercial music as related to audio recording and production. Specific topics include music fundamentals, commercial music theory, commercial form and styles, and basic aural and keyboard skills. Students who have passed MUTH 1110 with a grade of C or better may not enroll in RIM 1230 for credit. Laboratory required.

RIM 3000 - History of the Recording Industry
3 credit hours
Traces the development of the technology, business, major record labels, and the music recorded as well as significant individuals in these areas.

RIM 3010 - Audio Fundamentals
3 credit hours
Examines theories and technologies used in audio production for music, radio, TV, and film. Provides the management-oriented student with a useful vocabulary covering the area of audio production and provides the production-oriented student with the basic theory upon which production skills can be built. RIM 3010 is required for all Audio Production students; Music Business and Commercial Songwriting students may choose between RIM 3010 and RIM 3011.

RIM 3011 - Survey of Audio Technology
3 credit hours
For non-Audio Production Recording Industry pre-candidacy students; includes students seeking admission to candidacy in the Music Business and Commercial Songwriting concentrations. Overview of the basic function and application of audio hardware and software used in music creation. Surveys audio technology found in live sound, professional recording studios, and project studios. Required for admission to candidacy to the RI program and offered as an online course. Students must choose between and may receive credit for either RIM 3010 or RIM 3011. Audio Production concentration students will not receive credit for RIM 3011.

RIM 3020 - Commercial Songwriting
3 credit hours
Prerequisite: RI majors - admission to Commercial Songwriting concentration and RIM 1230 or MUTH 1110 and RIM 3115 or RIM 3116 with C or better; others - permission of instructor. Helps the new or developing songwriter acquire a song construction toolkit. Focuses on groove, melody, lyric, harmony, and structure and integrates these five elements into a cohesive and commercially viable song. Students expected to play guitar or piano and also sing.

RIM 3100 - Introduction to Popular Music Studies
3 credit hours
Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy; others - permission of instructor. Introduces students to different academic and theoretical approaches to popular music as a social and cultural phenomenon. A discussion oriented class that is both reading and writing intensive.

RIM 3115 - Songwriting Instrumentation: Guitar
3 credit hours
Designed for the beginning to intermediate guitar player. Focuses on scales, chords, rhythm, picking, fingerpicking, music theory, and performance techniques and how to apply these skills to songwriting and performing.

RIM 3116 - Songwriting Instrumentation: Piano
3 credit hours
Designed for the beginning to intermediate player using a playing-based method. Traditional note reading skills not required or taught. Focuses on chords, harmonic progression, accompaniment, improvisation, music theory, and fundamental musical elements relevant to commercial music and songwriting. May be of interest to guitarist/songwriters who want to learn how to play and write on the keyboard.

RIM 3200 - History of Country Music
3 credit hours
Prerequisite: Admission to candidacy. History and culture of American country music. Explores the historical progression of the genre and analyzes topics such as race and gender relations, material culture, generational conflict, and the role of "authenticity" in the creation and commodification of the music. Reading, writing, and listening intensive.
RIM 3300 - Digital Audio Technology
3 credit hours
Prerequisites: Recording Industry majors and Audio Production majors/minors. An overview of digital audio technology with an emphasis on computer technology related to music production, digital audio workstation hardware and software (e.g., Pro Tools), and digital audio theory. Laboratory required. Formerly RIM 4200 and RIM 2300

RIM 3450 - Advanced Commercial Musicianship
3 credit hours Prerequisite: RIM 1230 or MUTH 1110 with C or better. (Not available to students enrolled in or who have completed MUTH 1120.) Continuation of RIM 1230. Furthering the application of musical concepts previously learned to popular music. Topics include syncopation, modulation, two-handed accompaniment patterns, and selected secondary chords. Introduction to music notation software and the preparation of a lead sheet. Laboratory required.

RIM 4100 - Audio Signals and Systems
3 credit hours Prerequisite: Audio Production or RI majors and admission to candidacy; others - permission of department. A thorough study of sound in acoustic and electronic forms, including wave behavior, transducers, and the design and operation of analog and digital systems for detecting, receiving, measuring, manipulating, transmitting, and reproducing sound.

RIM 4130 - Cyber PR® in the Entertainment Industry
3 credit hours Prerequisite: Admission to candidacy or permission of instructor. Cyber PR® is the process where social media (with engaged behavior), public relations (outreach and some processes), and online and direct -to-fan (DF) marketing intersect. Explores the many new and entrepreneurial methods, theories, applications (i.e., Topspin and Next Big Sound) and best practices artists and brands employ to create awareness and make connections to consumers via electronic media. Readings, lectures, guest presentations, and professional group projects and experiences.

RIM 4190 - Introduction to MIDI and Sound Synthesis
3 credit hours (Same as MUTH 4190.) Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy and MUTH 1110, RIM 1230, RIM 3010, or RIM 3300 with C or better; others - RIM 3010, RIM 1230, or MUTH 1110 or permission of instructor. An introduction to synthesizer programming and the Musical Instrument Digital Interface (MIDI) with emphasis on history, theory, and application. Hands-on activities include synthesizer programming with virtual instruments and MIDI sequencing using a digital audio workstation. Laboratory required.

RIM 4210 - Desktop Music Production
3 credit hours Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy; others - permission of instructor. Theory and application of audio hardware and software for personal desktop music production. For RIM Music Business and Commercial Songwriting majors and Music majors, specifically Music Education majors. Emphasis on application through hands-on instructional techniques. May not be used as a prerequisite for RIM 4200 nor may it be used for credit by RIM Audio Production majors. Satisfies the music production component of the RIM Commercial Songwriting concentration. Laboratory required.

RIM 4230 - Advanced Cyber PR in the Entertainment Industry
3 credit hours Prerequisite: B or higher in RIM 4130 or permission of instructor. Applies the process where social media (with engaged behavior), public relations (outreach and some processes), and online marketing intersect. Analyzes, designs, and implements an online-social media marketing plan for an entertainment industry client. Uses existing and developing applications (such as Topspin Media's marketing and sales platform and Next Big Sound's data analysis and monitoring program) to receive basic training. While the promotion of music and entertainment are the focus, the skills and applications taught are transferable to other industries.

RIM 4290 - MIDI Based Music Production
3 credit hours (Same as MUTH 4290). Prerequisites: RI majors - RIM 4190/MUTH 4190 with C or better or permission of instructor. An intermediate electronic music course that introduces the student to alternate digital audio workstations such as Ableton Live and Logic Pro. Using a DAW with virtual instruments and synthesizers, students learn techniques for sequencing tracks for drums, bass, keyboards, guitars and other common sounds used in commercial music production. Laboratory required.

RIM 4300 - Advanced Pro Tools Techniques
3 credit hours Prerequisites: Audio Production or RI majors; admission to candidacy; RIM 1230 or MUTH 1110 and RIM 3300 with C or better. A detailed examination of digital audio workstation (DAW) techniques used in a variety of production environments. Comprehensive in-depth instruction in the use of Pro Tools hardware and software with emphasis on file management, stereo and multitrack editing, tuning, use of plug-ins, and delivery formats. Lab exercises to develop hands-on competency; hands-on proficiencies to assess abilities. Laboratory required.

RIM 4320 - Concert Promotion and Touring
3 credit hours Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy; others - RIM 3010 and RIM 3600. An in-depth study of the theoretical and practical aspects of presenting contemporary arts and entertainment performances. Topics include talent acquisition, contracts and riders, production, venues, budgeting, ticket services, and promotion.

RIM 4321 - Advanced Concert Promotion
3 credit hours Prerequisite: RIM 4320 or permission of instructor. A continuation of RIM 4320. Students create proposals for concert events, critique proposals, select best proposals, and present one or more shows.

RIM 4330 - Sound Reinforcement
3 credit hours Prerequisite: Audio Production or RI major; admission to candidacy; RIM 4100 with C or better. Current technologies and techniques involved in modern sound reinforcement. Topics include club venue and large concert systems. Field work required.

RIM 4333 - Sound System Design and Optimization
3 credit hours Prerequisite: RIM 4330 with C or better. Focuses on the concepts and skills required to design, build, measure, and tune a large-format concert sound system. Topics include acoustic transmission, audio measurement tools and techniques, loudspeaker arrays, acoustic prediction software, coverage of performance venues, and the goals and processes for optimizing the system. Extensive demonstrations and hands-on practice with audio hardware and software provide real-world context for concepts presented in class. Individual participation in discussions and demonstrations expected.

RIM 4335 - Advanced Sound Reinforcement
3 credit hours
Prerequisite: RIM 4330 with C or better. Provides a more comprehensive view of sound reinforcement and live entertainment that includes rigging fundamentals, entertainment electricity, and event safety. Lectures, guest presentations, in-class participation, and group projects and experiences.

RIM 4337 - Live Event Production
3 credit hours
Prerequisite: RIM 4330 or permission of department. Reviews RIM 4330 theories and live event skills and competencies. Students will expand audio production skill set, obtain additional live event experience, and develop event safety awareness.

RIM 4390 - Electronic Music and Controllerism
3 credit hours
Prerequisite: RIM 4190 with C or better or permission of instructor. An advanced electronic music course where students taught advanced production and performance techniques using Ableton Live. Topics include pop, hip-hop, and electronic production techniques; producing DJ sets; and designing controller performances. Students will develop skills for live performance using the Push controller. Laboratory required.

RIM 4400 - Recording Studio Techniques
3 credit hours
Prerequisites: Audio Production or RI major; admission to candidacy; RIM 3300 and RIM 4100 with C or better and previous or concurrent enrollment in RIM 4440; others - permission of department. Develops understanding of techniques and technology in modern multi-track recording and mixing. Extensive hands-on experience. Laboratory required.

RIM 4420 - Talent Agency Fundamentals
3 credit hours
Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy and RIM 3720 or RIM 4320 with C or better. Covers fundamentals of the talent agency business. Focuses on the talent agency side of the music industry including the role the booking agent plays in the career development and revenue generation of a music artist. Includes readings, lectures, guest presentations, in-class participation, and group projects and experiences.

RIM 4440 - Critical Listening
3 credit hours
Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy; others - permission of instructor. Ear-training and aesthetics for recording engineers. Class activities involve listening and analysis of master tape and disc formats. Sources include a wide variety of music genres as well as specialized technical ear-training materials. Development of a vocabulary for communication of aural impressions. Introduction to "high-end" audio.

RIM 4480 - Mastering
3 credit hours
Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy and RIM 3300 and RIM 4400; others - permission of instructor. An advanced hands-on approach to the principles and practices of mastering. Focuses on the use of digital audio workstations specially designed for audio mastering and related outboard equipment. Additional focus on surround mastering and DVD authoring. Laboratory required.

RIM 4490 - Broadcast Audio Technology and Methods
3 credit hours
Prerequisite: Audio Production or Recording Industry major; admission to candidacy and RIM 4400. An applications-oriented course focused on the theory and practice of audio systems, methods, workflows, and evolving technologies used in professional broadcast environments, including studio-based and remotely integrated radio and television production.

RIM 4510 - Study Abroad
1 to 3 credit hours
Prerequisite: Permission of department. Topics related to the recording industry in the country in course delivered. May be taken two times.

RIM 4550 - Hip-hop Music and Culture
3 credit hours
(Same as ANTH 4550 and MUHL 4550.) Prerequisites: ENGL 1010 and ENGL 1020 with C or higher. An ethnomusicological investigation of how hip-hop reacts to and informs mainstream culture through its primary art forms: music, visual art, and dance. Major themes and issues that cut across hip-hop’s history, including issues of style and performance, gender, race, politics, and religion addressed.
RIM 4567 - Practices for the DIY Recording Artist
3 credit hours  Prerequisites: Recording Industry and Audio Productions majors - admission to candidacy; others - permission of instructor. Technologies and business practices for the do-it-yourself music recording artist. Topics include creating and self-releasing a recording, independent distribution, and self-promotion. Three-hour lecture.

RIM 4570 - The Art of Soundtrack Design
3 credit hours  Prerequisites: ENGL 1010 and ENGL 1020 with C or better. Examines the creative use of sound in film and theatre through critical listening to various soundtracks. The theory and practice of sound design analyzed and discussed in a lecture-oriented class.

RIM 4575 - Sound Effects Design for Picture
3 credit hours  Prerequisite: RI majors and minors - RIM 3300 with C or higher; others - permission of instructor.
